

S<sup>r</sup>

I receiv'd yours on Tuesday & am much oblig'd to you for your kind inclinations in my favor - neither am I the less so, tho' I have not been so fortunate as to succeed in my wishes. I hope however that you will do me the justice to believe, that when I presumed to offer my services, it was not with the least Desire of supplanting any one who had a prior claim; but only to make it known to you & the parties concern'd, how sensible I should have been of that mark of distinction, could it have been confer'd upon me with propriety & convenience: but as the case now stands, I beg Mr. Hurst's pardon for interfering even thus far & sincerely wish him joy of being about to perform so agreeable an Office for an intimate Friend. - I desire my particular Compliments may be presented to Miss Hall & Mr. Lawrence - who am, I<sup>r</sup> your most humble Serv<sup>t</sup> & Adm<sup>r</sup>.

P. The young Gentlemen desire proper Remembrances.
