

Two concurrently running art exhibitions to open at UCSD

January 26, 1973

Two concurrently running art exhibitions by University of California, San Diego students will open at 7 p.m., Tuesday, January 30, in the Humanities-Library Bldg. on Revelle College.

An exhibition of sculpture will be on display in the UCSD Art Gallery, 1260 Humanities-Library Bldg., through February 15. Students exhibiting their work include Kenneth Capps, Brian Connell, Joe Cox, Jerry Garner, Michael Kelly, Wade Saunders, and Darrell Westlake.

Allan Sakula will present a work entitled "Aerospace Folktales" - a photographic and verbal documentation of the personnel layoffs in the aerospace industry - to be displayed in the Student Art Gallery adjacent to the UCSD Art Gallery in Room 1254.

The Sekula exhibition, which will be displayed through Wednesday, February, 7, consists of photographs and interviews with white-collar technical workers and their wives and a commentary of Sekula's impressions. A reading of some of the commentary will be given the evening of the exhibition opening.

The exhibitions will be available for viewing until 9 p.m., January 30. Normal gallery hours are from 12-5 p.m., daily, and 8-10 p.m., Wednesdays.
