

Inauguration cancelled due to illness

June 7, 1972

On Sunday, June 4, between 9:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m., Chancellor William D. McElroy underwent surgery for a peptic ulcer. The inauguration ceremony planned in conjunction with the June 11, 1:00 p.m., commencement for the University of California, San Diego has been postponed until the fall.

The commencement ceremony will proceed as originally scheduled. University of California president Charles Hitch and UCSD vice chancellor of academic affairs, Dr. Paul D. Saltman, will speak.

For additional information contact: Paul West (print media) Residence Phone: 223-7748 Jackie Janke (broadcast media) Residence Phone: 279-8730.

(June 7, 1972)