

UCSD's Mandeville Gallery to show photographs from the Library of Congress--Sept. 24-Oct. 31

June 18, 1993

Contact: Gerry McAllister, Mandeville Gallery, 534-2864 or Alixandra Williams, 534-3120

CALENDAR ANNOUNCEMENT

UCSD'S MANDEVILLE GALLERY TO SHOW PHOTOGRAPHS

FROM THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS--SEPTEMBER 24-OCTOBER 31

The Mandeville Gallery at the University of California, San Diego will open its 1993-94 season with an exhibition of photographs taken during the 1930s and 1940s by American photographers. The exhibition, titled "Documenting America, 1935-1943," contains photographs that were commissioned by the Farm Security Administration-Office of War Information during the New Deal and War War II. There will be a reception at the gallery on Thursday, September 23, from 6-8 p.m. Gallery hours are Tuesday through Sunday, noon to 5 p.m.

(June 18, 1993)