THE MQ

SUAVE. SENSUAL. SATIRE.

Here at the MQ, we'd like to congratulate you on standing close enough to read this small text. As UCSD's premiere satire newspaper, that's the bare minimum of effort we're looking for. So consider joining our talented crew. Just ask yourself, "do I want to be witty, sexy, and sitting just a little bit too close to the people in this picture?" Yeah, that's what we thought.

Join us, won't you?

TUESDAYS, 6 P.M., HALF DOME LOUNGE, MUIR

25th Anniversary Keynote

Over the Rainbow:

Second Wave Ethnic Studies Against the Neoliberal Turn

Robin D. G. Kelley

Wednesday, May 18, 2016

3:00-5:00pm

Great Hall

Reception to follow

In this talk Kelley places the origins of UCSD's Ethnic Studies program within a broader context of anti-racist student protests in the 1990s, the proliferation of new Ethnic Studies units from Columbia University to University of Colorado, etc. Although this was the height of liberal multiculturalism, it was also the era of NAFTA, Proposition 187, prison expansion, and policies that accelerated class and racial inequality. This period also marks the defeat of the Rainbow Coalition and Left internationalist politics of the 1980s, and the triumph of Clinton-era neoliberalism. Kelley will argue that what he's calling Second Wave Ethnic Studies emerged in response to this latest neoliberal turn as an effort at multiracial coalition building and rethinking the identity politics of the 1960s. The period is rich with lessons for our contemporary crisis.

READOUT: New Faces of LGBT Literature Part II

As a young writer and an openly gay Indian man, Mehta brings his keen insight and fabulous wit to his debut collection of short stories, Quarantine.

COME SPEND AN EVENING

LEARNING ABOUT THIS YOUNG WRITER'S WORK
AND BE PREPARED TO BE MOVED.

MEHTA IS DEFINITELY ONE TO WATCH OUT FOR!

Quarantine Reminiscent of Jhumpa Lahiri's Interpreter of Maladies and the work of Michael Cunningham, Rahul Mehta's debut short story collection is an emotionally arresting exploration of the lives of Indian-American gay men and their families. Manil Suri, the New York Times bestselling author of The Death of Vishnu and The Age of Shiva calls Quarantine an insightful and compellingly readable collection of stories in which Rahul Mehta masterfully explores the emotions, the conflicts, the complex accommodations of being gay and Indian American."

Rahul Mehta received his MFA from Syracuse University, where he was the Cornelia Carhart Ward Fellow. Portions of Quarantine have appeared in New Stories from the South, The Kenyon Review, The Sun, Epoch, Noon, and Fourteen Hills. Mehta lives with his partner in Alfred, New York, and teaches at Alfred University.

Congratulations Class of 2015!

Our Mission

The LGBT Resource Center at UC San Diego is a diverse, open, and public space for all members of the university community to explore issues relating to sexual and gender identities, practices and politics. It develops student leadership, builds workplace equity, promotes academic research, and provides resources. The Center challenges existing definitions of variant genders and sexualities by engaging in community building on and off campus. This Center sustains and develops visibility, sense of community, and knowledge of diverse queer people.

Special Thanks to

The UC San Diego Alumni office, the Women's Center, Cross-Cultural Center, Black Resource Center and Raza Resource Centro, the Office of the Vice Chancellor for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion, Principal Scott Barton and the leadership team at the Preuss School at UC San Diego, Anna Levitt, Dr. Cat Thompson, Sonia Rosado, Kafele Khalfani, the Chancellor's Advisory Committee on Gender Identity and Sexual Orientation Issues, and the 2014-2015 LGBT Resource Center interns, facilitators, staff and volunteers.

And finally, thanks to all the fabulous, graduating students. Your contributions to the UC San Diego LGBT community have made it what it is!

Good luck, you make us proud!
