Dear LGBTQIA,

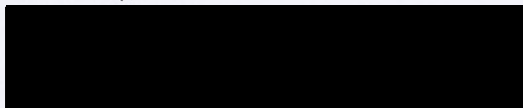

2/29/16

Thank you very much for allowing my Clairemont High School Academy of Health and Medical Sciences to come in to your resource center on our scavenger hunt on February 25, 2016. We know you are busy, and have a job to do, and we appreciate your taking time out of your day to allow us to ask you questions, give us buttons, point us in the right direction, tell us where our other locations were, and most of all, thank you for being kind, and helpful.

On the scavenger hunt, I learned about your center purpose, and; when, why, and how it was founded I also learned about more about the LGBT community.

Thank you for your help and for what you do for the UCSD campus.

Sincerely,

Student in the Academy of Health and Medical Sciences

On the scavenger hunt, I learned that you accept people from who they are, like gay's bi, etc. I just love the fact you make a group for them. It's just amazing for what you guys did! I hope one day I'll be at that school and helping out with the group.

Thank you for your help and for what you do for the UCSD campus.

Dear LGBTQIA,

Thank you so much for answering all of the questions my academy (Health and Medical Sciences) had asked you. People don't understand the things that the members of the LGBTQIA community have to go through and I really admire what your resource center is doing. On the scavenger hunt I finally learned what the QIA meant in LGBTQIA. I also learned that people will always have someone to talk to and they will always have a place to rely on because of your resource center. Thank you for being excellent examples of what hard work and achievement can accomplish.

Dear LGBTQIA,

Thank you for letting us Clairemont High school students come in your club. I liked the fact that they have that on the school campus and I respect that because I truly believe everyone should have their own rights and be who they want to be meaning just being themselves. Nobody should change who you want to be. Thanks for the information and for explaining to us what LGBTQIA meant. I think people shouldn't be scared to hide wether they are lesbian, gay, bisexual ..etc they should be proud of who they are and be what they want to be nobody should judge someone because of the decision they decide to make. We are all human beings and should be treated the same way. I honestly enjoy being friends who are gay, lesbian, bisexual..etc they are all good people in my opinion others may say otherwise but I think they are amazing fun people. Once again I appreciate you guys letting us come over and get information.

Dear LGBTQIA,

I think that your resource center is a very helpful and inspiring place. The fact that you guys help people show who they really are and not be afraid or ashamed of their selves is truly amazing. It makes a big difference in their lives. It's very nice of you to have a place where someone can go to open up and talk to you. Without your resource center, people may not be where they are today, When I went to visit your resource center, I was very inspired because I've never seen a resource center like that or even heard of one. I just think that it's wonderful for everyone that that's there. I've had a couple friends who like the same gender and feel ashamed and confused because everyone judged them. So I know that many people must appreciate what you do. If my friends go to ucsc when its time for us to go to college I will definitely tell them about your resource center. When I was visiting you were very polite and respectful. Even though there were lots of kids running in and out of there, you were still polite and interested in teaching us about what you do. So thank you. Your LGBTQIA resource center is a great place, thank you.
