

First lecture of fall series of librarianship seminars.

October 7, 1965

The first lecture scheduled for the fall series of librarianship seminars sponsored by the University of California, San Diego Library will be given at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday, October 12, in room 1205 of the Humanities-Library Building on the UCSD campus.

Dr. Carl M. White, Library Specialist at UCSD, will speak. His subject is "Creation of a National Library of Nigeria: Case Study of Library Problems and Progress In Developing Countries."

For the past three years Dr. White has been Program Specialist in Library Development for the Overseas Division of the Ford Foundation, spending much of this time in Nigeria. He has directed library schools and libraries in important posts both in this country and overseas.

Dr. White joined the UCSD Library staff on July 1 as a specialist in the development of the library school and library collections in history and the social sciences.

The seminar is open to all library personnel in the San Diego area. On Tuesday, November 9, W. R. Fletcher, well known British bookseller, will speak on his experiences in 40 years of bookselling, and on Tuesday, December 14, Harrison Bryan, Librarian at the University of Sydney, Australia, will speak on "University Libraries In Australia Today."
