

Fourth Annual Engineering Symposium to be held

March 7, 1985

MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: FOURTH ANNUAL UCSD ENGINEERING SYMPOSIUM

DATE: Monday, March 18, 1985

TIME: 8 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Undergraduate Sciences Bldg., Room 2622, Revelle Campus, UCSD

CONTACT: Ann Mendelsohn, 452-4490 or Paul Lowenberg, Public Information Office, 452-3120.

REMARKS: Highlights of the daylong conference will include:

--Overview of engineering by Dr. M. Lea Rudee, dean of UCSD Division of Engineering.

--Overview of new structural engineering lab currently under construction at UCSD, by Dr. David R. Miller, chairman of Applied Mechanics and Engineering Sciences at UCSD.

--Discussion of the San Diego Supercomputer Center, by Dr. Sidney Karin, GA Technologies.

--Current and Future Research at the Center for Magnetic Recording Research, by John C. Mallinson, CMRR director.

--Ballistic Missile Defense: From MAD to SANE, by Dr. Stanford S. Penner, director of the UCSD Energy Center.

(March 7, 1985) For more information contact: Paul Lowenberg, 452-3120