

Madrigal Singers of UCLA will present a program in anticipation of Christmas at Sumner Auditorium on December 15

December 8, 1961

The Madrigal Singers of the University of California, Los Angeles will present a program in anticipation of Christmas at Sumner Auditorium, University of California, San Diego, at 8:00 p.m. Friday, December 15.

The 16-voice group is led by Raymond Norem, Associate Professor of Music, UCLA. The program includes works by Aichinger, Scutz, Schubert, and a number of traditional carols.

The public is invited. Admission is free.