

Media Advisory on four commencements

June 10, 1975

MEDIA ADVISORY

STORY: UCSD commencement (four separate ceremonies)

DATE: Sunday, June 15

TIMES AND LOCATIONS: Third College at 10:30 a.m. on Third College Plaza, Matthews campus

Revelle College and Graduate Division at 12:30 p.m. on Revelle College Plaza

John Muir College at 1:30 p.m. in courtyard area north of Applied Physics and Mathematics Building, Muir campus

Fourth College at 3 p.m. in conference room of Institute of Geophysics and Planetary Physics, Scripps Institution of Oceanography campus

CONTACTS: Joan Rasmussen or Paul West, 452-3120

COMMENTS: Some 1,495 undergraduate, graduate and School of Medicine students eligible for degrees (School of Medicine ceremonies held June 8). UCSD Chancellor William D. McElroy to attend each ceremony to congratulate graduates.

Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii, to be featured speaker at Third College ceremonies at 10:30 a.m. Inouye available for media interviews at 9:45 a.m. in the Third College Provost's Office, Building 412, Matthews.

Speaker at the combined Revelle-Graduate Division ceremonies will be Dr. Roger Revelle, head of the Center of Population Studies at Harvard University. Revelle College was named after the scientist, a former director of UCSD's Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

Muir College students will hear an address by a member of their own graduating class. The college's academic procession will be led by two bagpipers. Fourth College, which enrolled its first class last fall, will graduate its first two students with Provost M. Lea Rudee presiding over the ceremonies.

(June 10, 1975)

Detailed release attached