Mr. A. L. Boal,
c/o Mr. Lou Stockton,
Ramona, Calif.

Dear Sir:

Answering yours of Oct. 11th, I am very much interested in this matter. It is just possible I may handle the Etoheverry ranch and sub-division, and I would appreciate a conference with you on this subject, or any information in relation to the possibility of developing artesian water and your suggestions.

Yours very truly,

Mr. Ed. Fletcher
920 Eighth St.,
San Diego, Cal.

Dear Sir: Your favor of 1st "inst. recd.

We expect to be in Ramona Saturday of this week and Monday of next week, at Lou Stockton's ranch - when you can see us.

You stay a day or so longer if it should be more convenient for you and you will so advise us, before Monday evening.

Very respectfully

J. Miller Boal

P.S.

We do not expect to be in San Diego this trip - B —

Mr. J. Mills Bosl,
Julian, Calif.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of October 19th did not reach the office until Monday, when Colonel Fletcher had left for San Francisco and could not meet you at Ramona. If you will let Mr. Fletcher know where he can reach you in Los Angeles or the next time you are down, I am sure if it is at all possible he will be glad to meet you and have a conference.

Yours very truly,

Secretary
