Cia Del Boleo
114-7th Street,
San Pedro, California.

Attention Mr. Zarwahn:

Dear Mr. Zarwahn:

I have just received the attached telegram that is explanatory.

My son, Ed. Jr., will be there sometime Sunday. If the boat should leave before he arrives to get the automobiles, will you kindly get the keys from the captain.

Would you also, if you know about what time the boat is going to arrive, either on Friday or Saturday, kindly send me a telegram at my expense the hour of arrival.

Yours very truly,

Mr. O. Hopp,
c/o Comania del Boleo,
Puerto de Santa Rosalia, B. C.

My dear Mr. Hopp:

I can't thank you enough for your splendid cooperation and courtesies to us all when we were there and particularly for the return of the machines. Everything arrived safely.

My one desire is to have the privilege of returning the compliment to you and your friend.

We had a wonderful trip hom, spending four or five days at La Paz and fished at Cape San Lucas. Our fishing was a great success. My son, Ed Jr. caught one fish, a rooster fish weighing 38 1/2 pounds.

We stopped in Magdalena Bay for a couple of hours and arrived hom safely before Christmas.

I am sending you under separate cover with my most sincere regards a souvenir.

Wishing you and your friend the compliments of the Season and assuring you that if either of you ever get within 250 miles of San Diego you must come down and make us a visit and give Mr. White, Colonel Copley and myself an opportunity to return your many compliments.

Sincerely your friend,

EF:AK
