

San Diego's only professional jazz dance company, Jazz Unlimited, to perform in the Mandeville Center Recital Hall

February 23, 1983

Jazz Unlimited will perform at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 8, in Mandeville Center Recital Hall on the campus of the University of California, San Diego.

San Diego's only professional jazz dance company, Jazz Unlimited presents performances designed to appeal to the broadest range of dance enthusiasts. Their diverse repertory spans all genres, from rock to jazz to lyric.

Patricia Rincon, the troupe's artistic director, was trained in Los Angeles and New York and holds a master of fine arts in choreography. She has worked extensively in Europe as a guest teacher/performer. She is a member of the faculties of UCSD and San Diego State University.

The dancers of Jazz Unlimited are Scott Benson, Barry Bernal, Suzanne Fernandez, Kristin Kuerbis, Melanie Montilla, Kim Proctor, Alicia Rincon and Patricia Rincon.

Jazz Unlimited currently is in residence at Peninsula Arts Company in San Diego.

This event is sponsored by the University Events Office. General admission is $7; UCSD faculty, staff and other students: $6; and UCSD students: $5. For ticket information phone 452-4559.
