

Seventeen members of the UCSD Chancellor's Associates to receive awards for their service to the university at the eleventh annual Chancellor's dinner dance

June 30, 1983

Seventeen members of the University of California, San Diego Chancellor's Associates will receive awards for their service to the university Friday, July 8, at the eleventh annual Chancellor's dinner dance in the Revelle College dining commons on the UCSD campus.

Chancellor Richard C. Atkinson and Mrs. Atkinson will serve as co-hosts for the annual formal event which honors members of the Chancellor's Associates and the UCSD Board of Overseers. More than 200 members of the two support groups and their guests are expected to attend the dinner dance which has become a summertime tradition.

The 17 honorees will be presented awards recognizing 10-year memberships in the Chancellor's Associates. They are: Philip H. Benton, Albert J. Blaylock, Richard W. Callahan, Thomas H. Chapman, George L. Cory, Donald L. Daley, Dean R. Dunphy, Robert Ekstrom, George J. Ellis, Kim Fletcher, Harvey Furgatch, George L. Gildred, Armon E. Kamesar, Frank Kockritz, Robert Mosher, Dale W. Naegle and Willard P. VanderLaan.

Samuel R. Kephart, a former student at UCSD and the current host of "Inward Bound," a cable TV series dedicated to self-development, will serve as master of ceremonies for a brief program during the dinner. One of his duties will be to introduce new members of the Chancellor's Associates who have joined the group during the past year.

The Chancellor's Associates, which began in 1966, is made up of friends of the university who contribute $1,000 or more annually for the discretionary fund of the chancellor. There are currently some 235 members in the support group. Clayton Brace, vice president and general manager of KGTV, Channel 10, has served as chairman of the Associates for the past year and will continue in that post for the 1983-84 academic year.

The Board of Overseers was established in 1973 as a community advisory board designed to assist the chancellor in the development and operation of the campus. It has continued to meet on a quarterly basis assisting in legislative, budgetary and community areas. Hamilton Marston, a retired San Diego businessman, is the current chairman of the Board of Overseers.
