COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERS TO BE HONORED BY UCSD

The leaders of some 30 voluntary organizations affiliated with the University of California, San Diego, will be honored at a holiday luncheon to be held at noon, Dec. 16, at University House, home of Chancellor and Mrs. Richard C. Atkinson.

The volunteer recognition event is intended to thank involved community members for the time and energy they spend on behalf of the University, according to Jerome S. Katzin, president of the UCSD Foundation Board of Trustees.

"In this time of declining state revenues, the hours and the funding contributed by these volunteers is extremely important to the University," Chancellor Atkinson noted.

The leaders and organizations to be honored include Bob Kelly, Alumni Association; Dr. Lenny Goins, Black Alumni Scholarship Committee; Ray Peet, Board of Overseers; Bridget Breitenberg, Cancer Center Associates; Peter Preuss, Cancer Center Foundation Board; Dixie Unruh, Chancellor's Associates; Nicholas Aguilar, Chicano Alumni Association; Emmy Cote, Colleagues of the Stuart Collection; Jim Bixby, Dean's Advisory Council, Engineering, and Dita Gumpel, Friends of the Judaic Studies Program.

Also Barbara Armstrong, Friends of Contemporary Black Arts Program; Roland Schroeder, Friends of the Theatre; Mary Berglund, Friends of the Library; John Stewart, Friends of Music; Alma Coles, Friends of the International Center; Rebecca Eyre, Graduate School of International Relations & Pacific Studies Alumni Association; Katzin, Judaic Studies Board of Visitors; Dr. Henry Wheeler, Mandeville Gallery Art Council; Ellen MacVean, Medical Center Auxiliary; David Hale, Medical Center Board of Advisors and Dr. William Piggott, Medical Alumni Association.

Also Ellen Revelle and Beth Spooner, Oceanids; Rudolph Rehm, Off the Wall Foundation; Jack Charney, Planned Giving Executives Committee; Joy Glenner, School of Medicine Associates; Dr. Mia Tegner, Scripps Institution of Oceanography Alumni Association; Richard Gulley, E.W. Scripps Associates; Pat Hyndman, Stein Institute for Research on Aging Board; Sally Ashburn, Visitor's Program, and John and Carolyn Woodard, Warren College Parent's Council.
