My dear Miss Scripps:

Replying to your letter of recent date.

The Finance Committee of the Regents wish me to inform you that it will be satisfactory to them to have the expenses incurred by Mr. Crandall in the performance of his duties as Federal Fish Commissioner charged to your donation to the Maintenance Fund of the Institution, except such expenses as are otherwise provided for.

Yours very truly,

MONTHLY PAYMENT OF $125 TO SCRIPPS INSTITUTEON FOR BIOLOGICAL RESEARCH

Mr. E. W. Scripps, Annapolis, Md.

Dear Mr. Scripps:

Te Mariane

In your autographically signed letter to me dated September 6, 1917, you made the following statement:

my payments of $125.00 a month to the institution untid the next biennial appropriation had been made for the University by the legislature; but that, beyond this, it would be unwise for him or others to presume that I would make any more donations."

Thru the Miramar Ranch Account, the payment of $125.00 a month to the Scripps Institution for Biological Research has been continued.

There has been no session of the legislature since your letter was written and will be none until next winter. I have assumed that your statement "until the next biennial appropriation had been made by the legislature" referred to the next session of the legislature. Captain Crandall says you may have had reference to the biennial appropriations made by the last legislature and which became available july 1, 1917; but that seems to me inconsistent with the statement in your letter.

The whole letter indicated that you had not yet reached a definite conclusion, but had given warning that you might discontinue your financial assistance to the institution. Under these circumstances, the payments have been con-

Received of W. C. Crandall, Business Manager, a Navy pay check drawn on the Treasurer of the United States for Three Thousand ($3,000) Dollars, dated October 4, 1918. No. 8081, and payable to the Scripps Institution for Biological Research, and which he has endorsed "Scripps Institution for Biological Research, By W. C. Crandall, Business Manager."

This check is in payment for the motorboat "Ellen Browning", which was commandeered by the Navy and payment for which would not be made until the Local Board of the Scripps Institution had authorized the execution of a bill of sale, and bills of sale were executed and delivered to the United States Navy by the Scripps Instition for Biological Research, by W. C. Crandall, Business Manager, and by E. W. Scripps, by James G. Scripps, his attorney-in-fact. This boat belonged to me, (I advanced the entire cost thereof and never parted with title thereto), but the pay check was made payable to the "Scripps Institution for Biological Research."

In consideration of W. C. Grandall endorsing this check and delivering it to me, I agree to protect said W. C. Grandall and to hold him harmless on account of the execution of said bill of sale and endorsement of said check over to me. I also agree to make an equitable adjustment with said Scripps Institution for expenditures made by it on account of said motorboat.

Miss Ellen Scripps, La Jolla, California.

My dear Miss Scripps:

It has been so long since I have seen you that I am afraid you have forgotten me. That I may keep my memory green, I am writing this little note to tell you that Mr. Alexander Kaun, of the University, will speak in La Jolla Thursday evening, January 23d, at the Community Center. I made this arrangement with Mr. McKenny this morning by telephone.

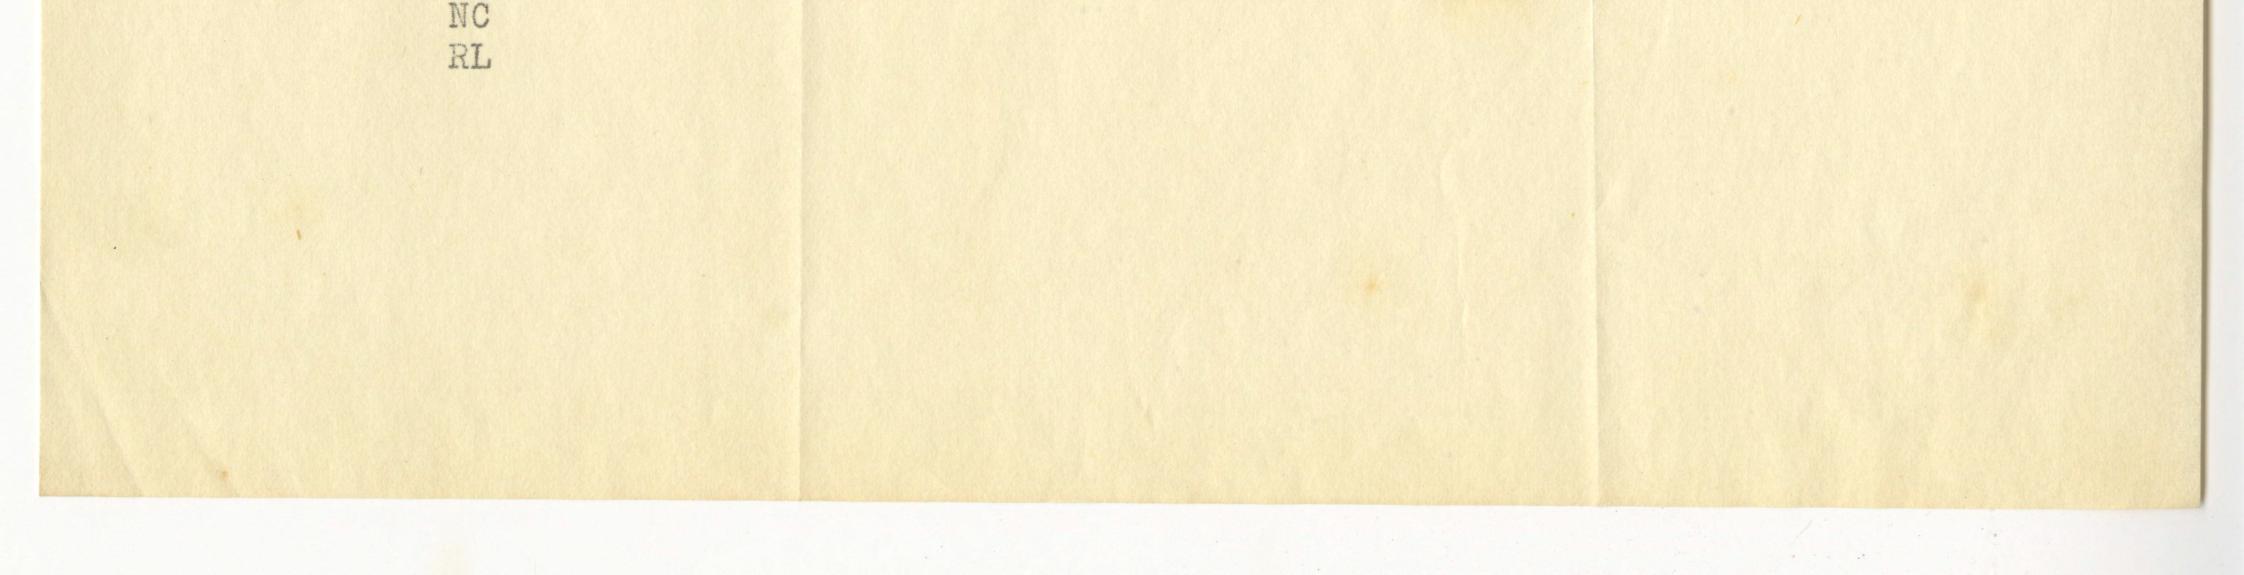

Mr. Kaun is a very unusual young man. I know of no one who has so much knowledge about Russia and who tells it is attractively. People are charmed with him wherever he lectures. I hope, therefore, you will find it possible to go out to hear him and see as much of him as you can, for it is a genuine joy to know him.

I hope you are well. My kindest regards to your sister.

Very cordially yours,

Macine Buch

My dear Miss Scripps.

Each time I have had the pleasure of seeing you of late I have been more and more impressed with your rich store-house of knowledge of events, and the immense benefaction which your life has held for others. All of which caused me to write the other day to this

* Mr Ingersoll (you will notice I had forgotten his whole name) asking him if he had suitable data upon your rare life for the work upon which he has for years been engaged, Also telling him that if he had not such data I would try to persuade you to permit me to send it to him. Mr Ingersoll's letter in reply lies before me and I think I am justified in reinclosing it to you that you may see, and clearly understand, that this man's work is entirely reputable and reliable as far as I know it. My record, which he referrs to at the end, was written by the Superintendent of the Los Angeles Schools Mr James A.Foshay when I was Supervising Kindergartens there. I smile, and also blush for shame, when I measure my frail claim to such distinction with your colossal claim-Your magnificant charities. - Your generous acts of loving kindness so freely bestowed upon every hand.

T fully understand your natural avoidance of anything like publicity ; there is a "modesty of greatness" which I am sure would distinguish your every act, and yet may I not say this much on the other side.

I will venture the guess that in your experiance in the world you have met few enough souls of the LIGHT HOUSE type. but when met , did they not, every one, give you new courage and strengthen your resolve never to be a "leaner" but to be as far as possible one of the "lifters" of the world? This then you can do for society, as well as for the members of your own family who shall come after you and proudly claim their "Clansman". For there is an undising aristocracy of greatness of which all men are justly proud.

I would not have you undertake anything exhausting of course, but if you will let me write a brief biographical sketch to be submitted to this very dignified publication I will be glad to contribute the labor involver to the cause of justice to the greatest of California's womenhood.

I am working now with might and main to complete another Chinese Story, but will be at liberty at any time after March 15", to do anything which you would like to have me do in this matter.

Let me beg of you once more to give this your serious consideration.

Very cordially yours-

Miramar, Calif., March 27th, 1919.

It has just occurred to me that when I left, some two years ago, I made some sort of arrangement or agreement with you about buying books. Formerly, too, I carried a little bank balance subject to the institution's draft for this purpose. I do not know what has been done in this matter.

However, this is to authorize you to purchase books, magazines, etc., at the rate of $100 or $150 per month and to call on me for the same. While away I bought several hundred volumes of scientific and semiscientific works. Many of these have been scattered by the wayside as I have traveled from place to place. But I believe I have with me several score of volumes, some of which I have read and are done with; others I have found uninteresting. Sometime when you are over here, you might look them over and see if there are any volumes that you would like to add to your library. My book shelves at Miramar are overloaded.

Yours sincerely,

E. W. SCRIPPS.

By oversight I left on Ritter's desk the copy of the Scientific Monthly having in it your article, which you gave me. My March number of the Scientific Monthly is on my table and I will read your article in it. I will not, therefore, need your copy of the Monthly.
