

Students of violinist Janos Negyesy to perform violin and viola recital

February 26, 1990

Contact: Laurie Masten, Department of Music, 534-5404 or Alixandra Williams, University Communications, 534-3120

UCSD STUDENTS OF VIOLINIST JANOS NEGYESY TO PERFORM VIOLIN AND VIOLA RECITAL, MARCH 6

Students of internationally known violinist Janos Negyesy will perform in a violin and viola recital at 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 6, in the University of California, San Diego Mandeville Center Recital Hall.

Negyesy, a UCSD professor of music, is a renowned violinist and composer who is known for his artistry on acoustic and electronic violins.

The students will perform the following program: Schuman: A minor Sonata, Mary Oliver, violin, accompanied on piano by the UCSD professor of music Keith Humble; Handel: E Major Sonata, Kathryn Marshall, violin and Jason Tsai, piano; Brahms: Agnes Gottschewski, violin and Rita Borden, piano, and Reger: Viola Sonata, Douglas Gunderson, viola.

This concert is free and open to the public.

(February 26, 1990)