STORY: UCSD traveling comedy shows

DATES: July 23 - Aug. 3 (daily except July 28)

TIMES: see attached schedule LOCATIONS: Outdoors--beaches, parks, downtown San Diego, UCSD campus (see schedule)

VISUALS: Lively comedy--slapstick, pratfalls, interplay with audiences. Color--costumes, make-up, stage scenery.

CONTACTS: Joan Rasmussen, public information office, 452-3120; Dr. Michael Addison, Department of Drama, 452-3791.

REMARKS: Some 20 theater students in UCSD's summer comedy workshop have created two original shows, "Pandemonium in Provolone" and "Much Ado About Peaches." The 30-minute productions will be presented free to San Diegans at 10 outdoor locations during the next two weeks. Stages have been built on the back of flatbed trucks. The show produced by last summer's comedy workshop gathered large crowds at beaches, parks and shopping centers throughout San Diego. Requests for return appearances by the group resulted in the creation of a second show and the scheduling of performances long after the summer season concluded.
