UCSD'S GOSPEL CHOIR TO PERFORM IN MANDEVILLE AUDITORIUM ON MARCH 10

Ken Anderson, the director of the University of California, San Diego's Gospel Choir, will lead 350 voices singing contemporary and traditional songs, at 8 p.m. March 10, in the Mandeville Auditorium of the University of California, San Diego.

Vocal soloists will include George Callahan (the choir's assistant director), Karen Barnett and La Tanya Auslar.

Some of the gospel songs the group will perform are, "Stand Still," "Steal Away," "Blessed Be Your Name," "We All Need Him," "Majesty," "Joy," and two medleys of praise songs.

The complete 900-voice Gospel Choir will be performing in the spring at the U.S. Marine Corps Recruit Depot and at Balboa Park for the Earth Day ceremonies on April 26.

Tickets for the performance are $5 for general admission and $3 for students, and may be purchased at the door on the night of the event.
