Alresford Fair, July 28th, 1892.

Sale of 30 Well-bred Hampshire Down Ram Lambs.

MR. JAMES HARRIS

Has been instructed by Mr. W. H. GUNNER, of Will Hall Alton, to Sell by Auction,
ON THE FAIR GROUND AS ABOVE,

30 Hampshire Down Ram Lambs

From the Will Hall Flock, which is entered in the Hampshire Down Flock Book.

The Exhibits from this Flock have been very successful last year at the Local Shows at Alton and Farnham, taking First and Second Prizes at both Shows for Ewes, and Second at Alton for Ram Lambs. The Flock was founded by purchase of Ewes from the late Mr. W. NEWTON and Mr. W. E. PAIR, Rams having been used, from Messrs. PALMER, TWITCHIN, J. BARTON, W. M. HARRIS, A. P. T. DRAKE and W. WOODS, which has been strengthened this season by purchases from Mr. F. MOORE and Mr. JAMES GOLDSMITH, so that some of the best blood obtainable will be found in the Lambs now submitted to competition.

Catalogues will be published in due course, and may then be obtained of the AUCTIONEER, Winchester.

A. T. DODWELL, WINCHESTER.

ANNUAL SALE OF HAMPSHIRE DOWN RAM LAMBS.

MR. JAMES HARRIS

Has been favoured with instructions from Mr. GEORGE JUDD, to Sell by Auction, on the Premises, as above,

ON THURSDAY the 4th of AUGUST, 1892,

At One o'clock,

100 RAM LAMBS,

FROM HIS WELL-KNOWN COCUM FLOCK.

The essential characteristic of a good Down Sheep, aptitude to fatten, and early maturity, has never been exemplified so fully as in the exhibits from this Flock at the Annual Winchester Fair Show, where they have for many years taken the First Prize. The Breed Cup for Lambs in 1888, at Smithfield, and for Ewes in 1892, are further proofs of the character of the Flock which Mr. JUDD has maintained for many years by judicious crosses with some of the best blood to be obtained, while his large draft enables him to have a good selection for the Ram Lambs offered to the Public.

Conveyances will meet the principal Trains to take Purchasers to the Sale.

Catalogues in due course of the AUCTIONEER, Winchester.

A. T. DODWELL, WINCHESTER.
