

"Art Through the Eyes of Children", art work of children attending the UCSD Day Care Educational Center on display at The Gallery

February 11, 1982

The art work of the children attending the University of California, San Diego Day Care Educational Center will be on display at The Gallery, 7917 Girard Avenue, La Jolla from Saturday, February 27, through Wednesday, March 10.

The exhibit, titled "Art Through the Eyes of Children," is sponsored by the La Jolla Art Association. The art work demonstrates the wonderful imagination of children through their creative use of media and color.

The Gallery is open daily from noon to 4:30 p.m. An opening reception honoring the young artists from the Day Care Educational Center will be held from noon to 4:30 p.m. Sunday, February 28. The public is invited to attend.

For more information contact: Paul West, 452-3120

(February 11, 1982)