"Music by the UCSD All-Stars," a program of new electronic music recently completed by composers studying at the University of California, San Diego, will be presented at 8 p.m., Thursday, February 8, in the Recital Hall, Bldg. 409 on the Matthews Campus.

The tape concert, which demonstrates the wide range of electronic musical activity taking place at UCSD, is free and open to the public. A variety of sound sources and aesthetics are represented - from the human voice and bicycle sounds to pure electronics and improvisation.
