ASSOCIATE HUMANITARIAN AFFAIRS OFFICER

The Office of the UN Resident Coordinator (UNRC) in Papua New Guinea recently began strengthening its humanitarian and disaster management capacity. In late January 2006, the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs (OCHA) fielded a Humanitarian Affairs Officer (HAO) to support the UNRC, provide technical support to ensure information sharing and strengthen the coordination of UN agency and other humanitarian partners' interventions.

The Associate Humanitarian Affairs Officer (AHAO) will work closely with the HAO to act as a focal point for emergencies within the UN System and to act in support of the Resident Coordinator (RC) and the UN Country Team (UNCT). The post encompasses two key fields of responsibility, programme and administration, which the candidate will be expected to fulfill to equal measure.

Applications are invited from qualified PNG Nationals for the above position. Female candidates are encouraged to apply.

Job Summary

Under the overall supervision of the UN Resident Coordinator, and direct supervision of the OCHA Humanitarian Affairs Officer (HAO), the incumbent will have the following main responsibilities:

- Support the HAO in working with the Resident Coordinator in the latter's role of coordinating international humanitarian responses in the country and ensuring that strategic and operational disaster-management coordination mechanisms are established and fully functional;
- Liaise with all relevant UN agencies, NGOs, donors and local authorities, with the aim of facilitating coordination and consensus-building;
- Monitor, analyze and report on developments in the region and their impact on the humanitarian situation;
- Assist the HAO to prepare and regularly update situation reports and briefing papers on core policy issues related to disaster preparedness and response;
- Participate and ensure inter-agency contingency planning;
- Work with the HAO to ensure that individual agencies' contingency plans are consistent and well coordinated;
- Participate in the development of short and medium-term strategies for addressing humanitarian needs, such as Flash Appeals and other humanitarian strategy documents;
- Help to establish and maintain external relations, public information and advocacy;
- Monitor the occurrence of humanitarian issues in the local press, and elsewhere, and maintain a database that captures this information;
- Support the dissemination of relevant information to the in-country donor community, as appropriate;
- If necessary, participate in all matters related to natural disasters, in close consultation with OCHA's Coordination and Response Division (CRD) and Emergency Services Branch (ESB): situation reports, appeals, cost plans for cash contributions made by/through OCHA and final reporting on their use; participation in/support to UNDAC missions and support to the Military and Civil Defense Unit (MCDU) and the Logistics Support Unit (LSU);
- Fulfill administrative and clerical tasks designated by the HAO, such as filing, drafting correspondence, making phone calls and appointments;
- Maintain the office's set of accounts and prepare financial reports as required;
- Maintain emergency contact lists of names, addresses and telephone numbers of all relevant stakeholders active in disaster management;
- Work closely with the HAO in the day-to-day running of all office tasks and activities;
- Help in planning and accompany the HAO and other colleagues on field assessment missions;
- Any other tasks as deemed necessary.

Specific duties include:

The incumbent will be responsible for (but not limited to) the following tasks:

- Assist in secretariat responsibilities for the IASC DMT, Avian Flu Working Group and any other disaster management fora;
- Work with the HAO to support the National Disaster Center to collate and disseminate key information;
- Regarding emergency preparedness and response, support the HAO to:
 - Liaise with the OCHA Regional Office in Bangkok, the RDRA in Suva, and OCHA HQs in Geneva and New York;
 - Liaise with key actors within and outside the UN System to ensure key decision makers and implementers are fully briefed on the evolving situations and responses being conducted;
 - Liaise with other UN agencies to complete tasks as set out in UN preparedness and response plans;
 - Brief the UNCT on the progress of the plans;

Essential knowledge and experience:

- 5 years of progressively responsible relevant professional experience in humanitarian affairs, emergency preparedness, crisis/emergency relief management, rehabilitation and development, or other related area, of which at least three years of relevant (field) and international experience in management of natural disasters and humanitarian emergencies.
- English proficiency, with ability to prepare official correspondence on behalf of the UN Resident Coordinator;
- Experience in the usage of computers and office software packages (MS Word, Excel, etc), experience in handling of web based management systems;

Qualifications:

University degree (Bachelors Degree) in disaster management, political science, sociology, law, international relations, or related field;

Application procedures:

Interested applicants are requested to send their written applications with CV, three references together with a completed Personal History Form (P.11) no later than 12 July 2006 to:

The Resident Representative
United Nations Development Programme,
P O Box 1041, Port Moresby

Fax No: 675-3211224, E-mail: registry.pg@undp.org with copy to: kay.evoa@undp.org

Only short listed candidates will be notified.
