

Premiere carillon piece to herald first day of UCSD classes

September 13, 1995

Media Contact: Jan Jennings, 534-8687

PREMIERE CARILLON PIECE TO HERALD FIRST DAY OF UCSD CLASSES

A world premiere carillon piece will chime forth from the University of California, San Diego carillon, located atop University Library, at noon, Thursday, Sept. 21--the first day of fall classes.

Composer Renee Coulombe, who will also be at the carillon keyboard, has entitled her piece, "Lullaby for Muslims and Serbs." A graduate student in UCSD's Department of Music, Coulombe has worked closely with University Carillonneur Scott Paulson.

The First-Day-of-Class commissioning is supported by the UCSD Alumni Association and the UCSD Department of Music. For information, call Paulson at 491-2473.

(September 13, 1995)