

Asian American Film Series to be held at UCSD

February 19, 1988

Contact: Paul Lowenberg, (619) 534-3120

ASIAN AMERICAN FILM SERIES HELD AT UCSD

A series of Asian-American films, sponsored by the Office of the Vice-Chancellor of Academic Affairs and the Council of Provosts, is being held at the University of California, San Diego.

The series is free and open to the public. The films are shown on Tuesday nights beginning at 7 p.m. in Room 2250 Humanities and Social Sciences Building on the Muir Campus.

Dates and titles of the films are:

February 23: "Bittersweet Survival," "Boat People of Vietnam," and "Becoming American."

March 1: "A Question of Justice," "The Chol Soo lee Case," and "Adopted Son: The Murder of Vincent Chin."

March 8: "Yukio Shimoda: An Asian American Actor," "Tribute to Nam June Paik," and "Dim Sum."

(February 19, 1988)