

Assistant Librarian Don Bosseau appointed to head University of Texas, El Paso Library

May 1, 1972

Don Bosseau, Assistant University Librarian at the University of California, San Diego since 1970, has been appointed University Librarian of the University of Texas, El Paso.

Bousseau has been on the UCSD library staff since 1966. He served as Read of the Library Systems Department from 1966 to 1970 when he was named Assistant University Librarian. he holds a Bachelor of Science degree in chemical engineering from Kansas State University, a Master's degree in nuclear engineering from the University of Kansas and a Naster's degree in library science from the University of Hawaii.

Before joining the staff at UCSD bosseau was employed by General Atomic and Allis-Chalmers. lie has published several articles in the areas of library automation and nuclear engineering. Bosseau and his wife, Kay, are residents of Solano Beach.

(May 1, 1972)