SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1893.

Places of Interest in the Vicinity of the Hotel.

The glass enclosed hot salt water plunge baths.

The Museum, containing 10,000 interesting specimens. The finest collection west of Philadelphia.

Curio Bazaar—Interesting exhibit of curiosities from Arizona, New and Old Mexico, and the Pacific coast.

The Company's Botanical Gardens, on Third Street and D Avenue.

A Trip on the Motor Line around the Bay to San Diego, and return by the electric car and ferry system, makes a pleasant change.

The Ostrich Farm, corner of Tenth Street and B Avenue.

Many Ostriches and Australian Emus; odd and interesting to look at.

The Company's Electrical Works and Ice Plant, near the Hotel, are seen to fine advantage in the evening.

The Old Town; the Presidio; Pump and Works of the San Diego Water Company; remains of Fort Stockton; the venerable Palms, being over 100 years old; the ruins of the Old Mission Church, established 1769 by Padre Junipero.
