

Afro-Cuban and jazz numbers performed at summer program

July 25, 1975

Modern, Afro-Cuban and jazz numbers make up the summer dance program set for 8 p.m. Friday, Aug. 1, in the Mandeville Center auditorium at the University of California, San Diego.

The program includes works in progress and is being presented as an open workshop.

Performers will be some 25 dancers who have studied the three dance forms in the summer dance class sponsored by the UCSD Department of Drama.

Members of the Celebration Dance Company, a new professional group in San Diego, will also perform several numbers.

The program is free and open to the public.

Choreographers are Dr. Floyd Gaffney, UCSD professor of drama and instructor of the dance course; Sharon Pinsley, artistic director of the Celebration Dance Company, and Day Power.

(July 25, 1975)

For information contact: Joan Rasmussen, 452-3120