

Memorial seminar for Harold Clayton Urey

February 3, 1981

The all day memorial service honoring Harold Urey will be held Saturday, February 7, in Sumner Auditorium on the Scripps Institution of Oceanography campus. While it is open to the public, no real effort has been made to publicize it. Some 500 invitations have been sent to friends, relatives and former colleagues all over the world.

Following is the program and speakers for the day:

Harold Urey, the Scientist 9 to 11:30 a.m.

Stanley Miller, UC San Diego Moderator

Murray Goodman, UC San Diego

Clyde Hutchison, University of Chicago

Karl Cohen, Stanford University

G. J. Wasserburg, California Institute of Technology

Hans Suess, UC San Diego

Samuel Epstein, California Institute of Technology

Harold Urey, the Man 2 to 4 p.m.

James Arnold, UC San Diego Moderator

Richard Atkinson, Chancellor, UC San Diego

F. G. Brickwedde, National Bureau of Standards

Herbert York, UC San Diego

Charles Perrin, UC San Diego

Cyril S. Smith, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Frances Torbert, San Diego State University

Roger Revelle, UC San Diego

Music: The Early Music Ensemble of San Diego

Reception following, 4 to 5:30 p.m.

The university is videotaping the entire seminar and TV monitors will be set up outside in case there is an overflow crowd for Sumner Auditorium. Programs with pictures from throughout the lifetime of Harold Urey will be given to the audience at the seminar.
