Dear Mrs. Wright:

Answering yours of recent date will say that permission is given for thirty days from date to gather the broken stems of lotus pods as per your request, all without charge.

You may issue a written permit to the party to gather same and this letter will serve as the permit.

Wishing you success in this matter, I am

Yours very truly,

You

have

We have a brother family in El. Cajon who I would be willing to gather & sleep them
to me -

They give the touch
to the wreath worth
else does - we need a slip some will really telling what all is on it -

Thank you for any consideration you may give us I am

a wonderful pond in El. Cajon - and we just wondered whether we might gather for one use in the wreath - of which I had up the wreath every year and
sleep to N.Y. - Canada and Florida - and the income from them furnished I sleep a week for 100 such lads as this one -
