

Free Sunday Afternoon Tours of UCSD Offered This Spring

March 6, 2007

Jan Jennings

San Diego area residents and out-of-towners can enjoy free Sunday afternoon tours at the University of California, San Diego. A volunteer guide will lead visitors on a tour of the scenic campus by the ocean and provide information on the history and unique features of UCSD.

Free general overview tours, by 18-passenger bus or walking, are offered Sundays at 2 p.m. leaving from the South Gilman Information Pavilion on campus.

Bus tours are 90 minutes in length allowing guests to see selected pieces of the Stuart Collection of outdoor sculpture found throughout the campus, the UCSD Theatres, Geisel Library, the Price Center and the campus recreational facilities. Short stops are made at Thornton Hospital and Birch Aquarium at Scripps Institution of Oceanography. These bus tours are offered the second, third, fourth and when appropriate, fifth Sundays of each month, holidays excepted. Walking tours also are 90 minutes in length and are offered on the first Sunday of each month. An adult volunteer guide leads guests on a leisurely stroll through the heart of the campus to view and discuss some of the undergraduate schools at UCSD, the Price Center, Bookstore, as well as seeing selected pieces of the Stuart Collection.

Special group tours can be arranged by request. Wheelchair accessibility is available upon request. Parking is free on weekends. Please phone (858) 534-4414 for reservations, or additional information.

The Spring, 2007 schedule of tours is as follows:

Walking tours: Bus tours: April 1 April 15, 22, 29 May 6 May 20 June 10,24

Contact: UCSD University Communications, 858-534-4414