Port Moresby killing Southern Zone

• Kiunga calls for a better deal

THE Kiunga Rugby League wants the Southern zone trial games organised on a fair and just basis considering each league in the zone equally.

The Kiunga league president, Thomas Kubu said that his league at its delegates meeting last week, was upset that leagues in the Southern zone are being treated badly by the Port Moresby Rugby League.

Doctor Kubu said that his league requested at the Papua New Guinea Rugby Football League (PNGRFL) general meeting early this month that the Southern zone trials be held at Kiunga.

Doctor Kubu said that this request has been turned down as it was reported that the Port Moresby league has insufficient funds to travel.

"To add salt to the injury, the Kiunga league along with Popondetta and Alotau leagues have been left out of the zone trials in Port Moresby which are to be in late April," Doctor Kubu said.

The zone trials are to be held with only the Port Moresby and National Capital leagues.

"I cannot believe that the Port Moresby league does not have the money to travel to other centres in the Southern zone," Doctor Kubu said.

"Port Moresby is the oldest and most established league in Papua New Guinea," he said. "Surely they have the means and facilities to raise funds," Doctor Kubu said.

"Why should the Kiunga league financially ruin itself each year by travelling to the zone trials held in Port Moresby?" he asked.

"Both the Port Moresby league and the National Capital league have greater opportunities to raise money than the Kiunga league.

"Furthermore the Southern zone trials system has to be changed to ensure an equal and fair participation for all fully affiliated leagues in the region," Doctor Kubu said.

"The practice of leagues like Kiunga playing against the National Capital league in so-called country trials, and then forming a 'country' team to play against Port Moresby is totally unfair and unjust," Doctor Kubu said.

by IAN KAKARERE

"Kiunga league has paid the same full affiliation fee of K1500 as Port Moresby has, so therefore Port Moresby must take part on equal terms in the zone trials," he said.

"Both the Port Moresby and National Capital leagues have to be prepared to travel to any centre in the Southern zone," Doctor Kubu said.

"For two years running, Kiunga has travelled to Port Moresby, so it is about time Port Moresby leagues travel to Kiunga this year," he said.

"The players in Kiunga have paid the same registration fees as Port Moresby players, and therefore must compete against each other with the same rights and opportunities," Doctor Kubu said.

"In terms of relative expense, it costs Port Moresby less to travel to Kiunga, than for Kiunga to travel to Port Moresby," he said.

Doctor Kubu also pointed out that Port Moresby has never beat Kiunga at any other location.

"Port Moresby might be hard to beat at Port Moresby, but they have never really proven themselves anywhere else," he said.

"Instead of having zone trials in Port Moresby late April, the Port Moresby league should send a team to play Kiunga at Kiunga, while the National Capital league could travel to either Popondetta or Alotau to play against them," Doctor Kubu said.

"Rugby League is dying in the Southern zone," he said.

"Daru, Kerema, Bereina and Kupiano are already dead," he said.

"A revival is trying to take place in Alotau and Popondetta. But I see the survival of rugby league in those two centres along with Kiunga as very shaky as long as the Port Moresby league and its officials in particular choose to ignore the rights of our leagues," Doctor Kubu said.

"The Kiunga league only wants justice," Doctor Kubu stressed.

"Port Moresby league has trodden over our rights for too long to the detriment of all leagues in the Southern zone," he said.

• A Brothers player run into an Air Niugini opponent. More league action on page 4 and 5

Doctor Kubu said that the Kiunga league has moved a motion to secede from the Southern zone and join the Highlands zone unless the Port Moresby league treats all other leagues in the Southern zone as partners with equal rights.

"Joining the Highlands zone is the only alternative we have if the Port Moresby league continues to treat the Southern zone with contempt," Doctor Kubu said.

"The Port Moresby league are not the owners of the Southern zone, and should work with all the leagues so that the code of rugby league can be promoted and developed in the region," Doctor Kubu said.

THE President of the National Capital League Tau Peruka said that he sympathises with the Kiunga league but the Port Moresby leagues were only following an agreement reached among Southern zone league delegates last year.

It was agreed that only Port Moresby leagues represent the Southern zone in the first round of trials.

At that time Kiunga, Tabubil, Alotau and Popondetta were not affiliated to PNGRFL.

It was also observed at that time that for the leagues outside Port Moresby to attend the trials at a central location will be a financial burden.

But the delegates agreed that at the later trials in June the smaller league would form a country side to take on the Port Moresby city side. From this game a Southern zone side would be selected for the Inter-zone championships.

"This arrangement would give smaller leagues sufficient time to condition their players and to raise the necessary funds," Peruka said.

"We are only following an agreement made by the Southern zone league delegates at the AGM last year," Port Moresby Tony Huai said. Only Port Moresby and National Capital leagues were affiliated then.

But if Kiunga has any grievance then they should talk to the other league in the Southern zone first before going to the press.

"We are not the Southern zone but it is true that a bulk of the Southern zone players are from Port Moresby," Huai said.

At the general meeting in Lae the smaller leagues in the Southern zone indicated that they may not be prepared by the time the first round of trials took place in April.

"But if they are prepared now in terms of finances and players then we can always look at another arrangement to suit all the Southern zone leagues," he concluded.

by JOE YORE

MORE than 400 people took part in the first season proper Touch game when 20 teams from three divisions took to the university sports oval as early as 9.00 am on Sunday 27 March.

The three divisions are the Mens, Womens, and Mixed. The Men's and Women's divisions have A and B grade comprising 14 teams. There is only A grade in the mixed competition consisting of seven teams.

A total of 20 matches on 4 fields were played and about 200 players participated at the UPNG sports oval last Sunday and will do so in the next 18 weeks.

No matches will be played this Easter weekend but games will start again the following week.

Tarax Rebels men's team could not match the Kele Kings speed and individual brilliance to surrender by the score of 7-2. In the A grade matches K K Touche's untiring defence pattern forced Viking into many errors and upset their usually faultless team work to win 5 to 4.

The match between KB Raiders and Lakowalai developed into a battle of fitness and endurance with the final scoreboard in Raiders favour by 1 point.

In hot conditions Lewamai Bros and Imilakele had to dig deeply on their reserves of energy when the scores tied 3 all with 5 minutes before full time. Neither could gain control at any stage but the Imilakele win resulted from their opponents error to win by one point.

The popular mixed men's and women's competition games displayed fast and exciting touch-downs as indicated by the high score line.

Kele Kings looked the team to beat from the start, after scoring only 2 minutes into their clash against Hohola Roosters. In the end they proved too fit and too elusive for Roosters to win by 6 touch-downs.

Medics just didn't have the right dose against Tarax Rebels mixed team to fall victims by 8 points to 6.

Lewamai overcame newcomers Teachers 7 to 3 but the Teachers should be proud of their teams performance in scoring against a very classy Lewamai opposition.

Meanwhile the PMTA is seeking a major sponsor for the 1988 season and is taking this opportunity to invite interested business houses to invest in this fast up and coming popular sport.

THE name of the game is money...oops...rugby league. Well as the saying goes, "Money is everything". The Development of the code, rugby league in this instance, is not important, well so it seems.

There is big talk for the development of the sport nationwide. Highlands, Northern and Islands seem to have followed this concept well. But for the Southern Zone the efforts seem to be concentrated in Port Moresby only.

Smaller leagues in the southern zone are picking up again, but the process at times is painstaking. Executives have to work beyond the resources available to promote the game.

And what does Port Moresby the biggest league in the country which is in the Southern zone do to assist?

What appears to be the message is, "Sorry fellas you are better back in your coffin."

It may not be so at first glance. But take another look. Take a look a Kiunga and National Capital League for example. Administration, above par, club and spectator participation, above par. Affiliation fee to PNGRFL K1500, same as all the other leagues in the country.

Ability to participate in the Southern Zone trials - not from the EDITOR'S desk

good enough.

What is the criteria used to evaluate ability to participate in the zone trials?

Financial constraints may be a reason leagues outside of Port Moresby cannot participate in the zone trials.

But for the past two years Kiunga and Tabubil have sent teams down to Port Moresby. The argument has been that gate takings may offset the costs. The leagues from the Western Province met the airfares and the National Capital League went into the "red" paying all the internal debts incurred.

To make the matter worse, after a gruelling two day country trials the country side had only another two days to recuperate, adopt match plans and as weary as they were took on a fresh city side under floodlights.

No wonder the Kiunga league president is calling for justice. What chance do the bruised and weary country lads, who have never played under floodlights, have against fit and seasoned floodlight players? Obviously nonewhatsoever.

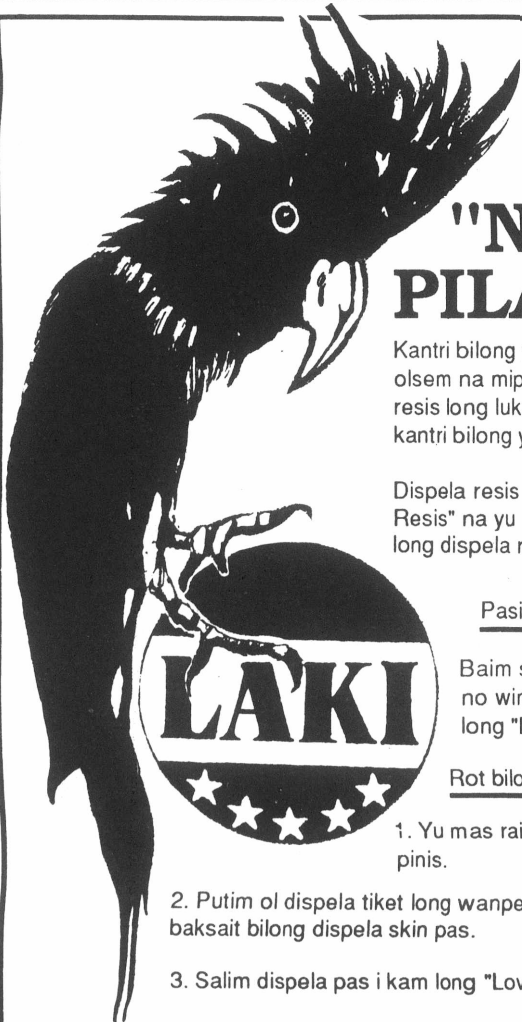

Who would want to come at night and see the Country side get a beating from City? It seems that gatetakings are not important here.

The reasoning behind country leagues having to travel to Port Moresby that gate takings may offset costs, appears invalid.

If Port Moresby is not interested in making money at the gates then it would be more profitable for rugby league to send a team to play in Kiunga, Popondetta or even Alotau.

Defence set to win Easter Challenge again

by JOSEPH KAU

DEFENCE has emerged as the team to beat in the Benson and Hedges Easter Challenge to be played in Port Moresby over the Easter weekend.

With three consecutive and convincing wins under their belt the soldiers should have all their big guns firing to take out the Easter Challenge for the second year running.

Coach Joe Yore seems to have moulded a bunch of dedicated youngsters into an unbeatable side and their quest for the Easter Challenge cup looks a certainty.

With Joe Ben and his safe hands back in the last line of Defence and hard running and tackling forward pack with little Alex Togola at the helm, the soldiers should manage to keep ahead of their opponents.

The backline with Lucas Agi dictating play has always looked devastating in attack and his combination with Tore Hou and union convert Dale Bera will be a bonus for the soldiers.

Defence take on Tarangau in the first game on Saturday and the Soldiers should exit Tarangau from the challenge. Their mid-week premiership encounter saw the soldiers adapt to the wet weather game to oust the warders 6-0.

But the outcome of this game can go to Tarangau if they are allowed to use their backline which was put out of action by the wet on Tuesday night.

Clement Mou is quick off the mark and with Mala Soi and Mafu Kerekere on the flanks will surely be a pain in the neck for the soldiers.

Defence should have too much firepower to proceed.

In the second encounter co-leaders in the Port Moresby competition Air Niugini should repeat their elimination of Brothers.

With Tony Kila, Moale Nou, Wata Sauna and the gallant Kepi Saea regaining form the airliners should make their presence felt.

But the dark horse of the Easter Challenge is Steve Malum's Kone Tigers.

Kone have been trialling a horde of youngsters in their previous club outing and they seem to have come of age.

With Stanley Haru at pivot and dictating play the Tigers may tame fellow big cats the Panthers.

However the Panthers cannot be taken lightly and will be out to prove that their wins over Tarangau and Hawks were no flukes.

The last game of the day should see Magani repeat the dosage they meted out to reigning premiers, DCA last week.

DCA did not seem to have any answer to the Magani lot and if the same attitude is displayed on Saturday, Magani should register an easy win.

TOWERING Kumul prop Thomas Rom-buck made his presence felt the Kimbe league scene when he was slotted into the Kimbe squad for the inter zone championship in Rabaul.

United prop joined the ranks with his touring team mate and Kumul ace five eighth Darius Haili.

The squad coach John Robin told RLN in Kimbe that the team is now out to return the honour as the king of the islands zone.

Last year Kimbe went down to Rabaul in the qualifying finals to play Bougainville in the

Kimbe - strong Contender for Islands zone title

by HENRY MORABANG

grandfinal. But now under the eyes of Robin, Kimbe is out to prove other islands zone centres wrong.

Kimbe's line up has a wealth of experience and youth and this should have the edge over the other centres. With old hands Chris Lagisa, David Tommy, Francis Daplen, Mack Tiene and Ben Ponai, Kimbe is out to be a team to beat.

While the other members of the team are Tony Meria, Francis Lalio, Nick Umari, John Gorea, Andrew Kuk, Anton Lavu, David Wanik, Willy Bau, John Bau, Nason Lavut, Steven Baki and Kapu Waru.

Robin said the main aim is to grab the title from Bougainville league.

Meanwhile its archrival Rabaul has named its squad and will be under the guidance of Paul Monama.

The handful of former Islands zone and Rabaul representatives have also been included in the squad.

The squad is: August Joseph, Philip Ngatia, Tanai Peni, Kapi Romanlus and Johnson Peter (Balanataman), Donald Lessy, Julius Komboli Gerald Ahkau, Cliff Rick, Joe Rudolf, George Harrington (North Raiders), Jack Sapat, Joe Gispe, James Kapia, Apelis Walyia, Bernard Bate and Herman Batia (Muruks), Feko Arori, Sialis Kuai, Smith

Billy, Diet Tetenge, William Nakikus, Tony Karau (Crusaders), Albert Levi, David Gaius, Malisa Lui, Jeffery Darius, Oniara Osanda and Benjamin Minel (PTC), Amos Wareki, Jack Peni, Peter Watinga, Poren Yagiri, Samson Akunai and Benson Woiwoi (Brothers), Kungas Kuveu, Chris Kabava, Jimmy Peter (Sea Eagles), Arnold Wanamp and Willy Ropa (Tarangau).

padding is just as capable as the next. Brothers fullback will bear testimony to that.

If you are the type who cherish throwing punches etc then you must also be prepared to cop a retaliation. The disciplinary committee should take a very hard line on these undisciplined players. They should be banned from playing for up to 4 weeks in the first instance and longer for subsequent cases.

Air Niugini looks like the team to beat this year. They've got a good hard running forward pack and a classy backline.

Moale Nou is proving to be one of the king pins in the backline and deserved the man of the match award last week. Together with Wata Sauna and Bob Tolik, Tony Kila and big winger Wanis this team will go a long way. My only reservation is Bob Tolik who is not suited to the centre spot: on four occasions last week there could have been tries scored except that Tolik passed forward on each occasion.

Alf Davis is another player who has shown consistency in all facets of his play: he is a good defender, wins his fair share of scrums and so on. He has been a New Guinea Islands representative and should be considered for the Port Moresby and Southern Zone hooking position.

In the other matches Wests have uncovered an up and coming star in Joshua Kouoru; though small in build this young man can go through the opposition with ease. He scored 3 tries for his team last week and we should see more of this youngster when his elder brothers Gideon and Haoda return to the fold.

There is something terribly wrong with the Wests Club, as most of the senior players have not been turning up. If Wests do not start winning any games soon after 3 losses in a row, they can say goodbye to the 1988 premiership.

In the coming Easter Benson & Hedges challenge on Saturday Defence should account for Tarangau, Air Niugini will encounter a stiff challenge from Brothers, Paga will be hoping to break the hoodoo from Kone Tigers and Magani are set to steamroll DCA.

Right frame of mind

RELAXING instead of getting caught up in the 'hype and psyche' is the secret formula in Paul Upfield's dynamic start to the season.

Upfield, undoubtedly the Steelers' best player in last Sunday's win over 'big brother' St George, said he no longer puts pressure on himself before or during a game.

"I've now been in Sydney long enough to know there is more to being a first-grader than hype and build up," he said.

"I'm taking it a bit easier now and find that not only am I enjoying myself but I'm doing well."

Steelers' coach Terry Fearnley, who is impressed by Upfield's potential, said the lock is benefiting from a fresher outlook on the game.

"Paul is playing every game as it comes and he is concentrating on his own game instead of the player around him," Fearnley said.

"He is also complementing Perry Haddock's game to the letter and that's having a great overall effect on the team."

Upfield won't allow himself to live on last weekend's effort.

He said last season taught him the most important game for any footballer is his next.

Last winter Upfield won wide praise for his effort in the Sydney-Country Firsts match. Eight weeks later though he was in reserve grade.

"That hurt a lot. But I guess my attitude had a lot to do with that," he said.

"I played representative football and then thought to myself what was next - and figured there was nothing.

"And I was dropped as a result. These days I'm playing as though my future depends on 'every' minute I'm on the field."

Upfield's attitude is being mirrored by his team mates. Last Sunday Illawarra showed a real killer instinct in their 20-4 victory and for the cynics who expected the Steelers to fall asleep and lose the match, they went home disappointed.

THE expected tight rope match between Air Niugini and Brothers last weekend didn't turn out that way. Air Niugini were a class above Brothers, who resorted to rough and dirty play from the kick off.

I honestly and truly do not see any logic at all in players deploying the iron man tactic to win games. Let's face it, every individual on the • Hawks no-nonsense forward Mase Peter grimaces as he meets his Panthers opponents. Panthers avenged their pre-season loss with a 44-16 drubbing of the Hawkies.

• A Holola player sees a gap and goes for it as his Tokarara opponents close in during the U19 game of the National Capital league on Sunday. The boys from the Fly proved too strong for their Central opponents to win the match.

• Bob Tolick in full flight for his team Air Niugini. Air Niugini continued their winning run by taming Brothers 28-8.

• This Air Niugini player is on the receiving end as two Brothers players crush him onto the turf. This type of rough play was the order of the day and resulted in a player from each team been sent off.

• Peter Smare attempts to wriggle out of this Hawks tackle. Colleague Brian Singut is at hand to assist.

• Now it is a Brethren who is on the receiving end. Air Niugini player stand by to ensure that he makes no further move.

Boroko to rock Tokarara

by JOE MARTIN

MAIN National Capital rugby league feature on Sunday between Boroko and Tokarara will be a display of hard football with the forwards deciding the fate of the game.

Both teams have very fast backlines, who will surely keep supporters on their toes until the final whistle.

The forwards however would be the game's deciding components, especially the way they keep the flow of the ball.

Tokarara lost to Hohola 20-28 in an evenly fought match, after the forwards had failed to time their ball passing to the backline.

Wingers Ume Noito and Allan Paru are devastating in attack and if fed with the ball could demoralise Boroko's winning spree.

Centre Koae Noito will be dictating play, and if he strikes well brethren Ume can be dangerous. Their combination should leave the Boroko defense with a lot of problems.

The lads from Hisiu will depend on hooker Miria Aihi to have the ball on hand for the final runs.

Lock Negi Solomon will most likely dictate play for the Boroko lads to send in front-rowers Steven Surina and Karo Kati on their usual hard runs.

Full-back Simon Asio and wing Mala Bunari are both fast and if not watched carefully by their opposites could run in tries.

Boroko has been doing very well so far, winning more games in their past encounters. They will no doubt be applying the same magic to kill off their Central Province opponents.

In the first senior grade fixture between Saraga and Hohola, the side that enables good flow of the ball will come out winner.

Both sides are fast and look equal in all departments.

Centre Steven Bibaesi, should again dictate play for the Hohola lads.

Waigani should edge out Bomana in their encounter.

Second rowers Joe Anasano and Konzy Kavara for Waigani combining with centre, Steven Karikesa should prove too powerful for Bomana.

Bomana after a long time has worked out a team that can be dangerous, according to officials.

But the team officials would have to make sure their boys do not mix liquor with games.

The side went down to Korobosea 32-8 because some of their players had a night of orgy and could not perform to the expected standard.

Hohola breaks the drought

AN estimated crowd of about five hundred people saw Hohola jumpback to life in the National Capital rugby league pre-season competition, as it held back a much more favoured Tokarara side to a 28-20 win.

Coach Wagubi Pilisa must have inspired the eagerness for his boys win, as he himself set play at half-back, after taking on full-time reserve position the last five weeks.

Hohola forwards led by prop Tutuli Koleya and hooker Kila Kiki were always breaking through the Tokarara defence, which somehow or other could not put back the much expected counter attack.

For the first time also since the start of the pre-season camp five weeks ago, the Hohola guys actually led the ball flow from the forwards to the backline, allowing for the much needed tries.

The first quarter was scoreless, as both sides, while assessing the opponents strength, got into tight defence. Front-rowers Nick Mafa and Ikupu Oa, and hooker Koae Noito were at the helm for Tokarara, whilst centre Agisa Mewa stood out for Hohola.

Half way through the second quarter, Hohola hooker, Kila Kiki following a Tutuli Koleya bomb retrieved and touched down near the posts.

Lock Bani Kamola had no problems in converting.

In their eagerness to register their first win this season, Hohola were penalised near their own tryline for offside.

Tokarara hooker Miria Aihi made no mistakes to collect his sides first two points.

But that was not going to be the end for them. Soon after the penalty goal, winger Irere Ume crossed over for an unconverted try.

At half-time both teams were tied on six points apiece.

Hohola got back into action straight after the interval. Centre, Steven Bibaesi, collected the ball from a scrum pack near the twenty-five metre mark and outpaced his opponents to score between the uprights.

Lock Bani Kamola collected the extra two points and Hohola led 12-6.

Tokarara retaliated only minutes after, when winger, Allan Paru intercepted a Hohola ball and raced out to score an unconverted try at the corner.

Seeing the close margin, Bibaesi who was now at his best set up wing Gesobana Inaya for a try between the uprights which was converted by Kamola.

Tokarara opened up the final quarter of the fixture with a try from five-eighth Mare Ume converted by Paru.

Hohola still had the eagerness to win the game and it was not long after, when John Gamani picked up a fumbled ball in their own twenty-five metre mark, and raced along the sideline to touch down at the corner.

This was followed by a Kila Kiki try for Hohola, which "golden boots" Bani Kamola converted.

Tokarara front-rower, Mamo Name bulldozed his way through the Hohola defense to score an unconverted try for the final scores.

In the main encounter, morally boosted and fast Korobosea side thrashed Bomana 32-8.

Half-back Thomas Punpun was the maestro of the Korobosea win.

Bomana lads were never in the game, and at the beginning of the second quarter, Korobosea led 16-0.

Bomana had a major share of the ball, but could not utilize it.

Another try came from Kapo Kao.

Waigani caned Saraga 24-14 in the first senior grade match.

The twelve teams will be divided into two pools, A and B. The games will be played in knock out form. The finalists with the two top teams from Pool A will play two top teams from Pool B. The winners will advance into the grandfinal while the losers will play for the third and fourth places.

The games will commence on Friday morning and will be played through Saturday and Sunday. The grandfinal will be played on Monday afternoon.

MOROBE Country League has announced its 23 man training squad to prepare for the Northern zone trials in Madang next month.

Morobe league President, Mukura Orere told Rugby League News, that they have selected the large training squad because players may sustain injuries during the Easter games.

After the training runs and close assessment of players, six will be dropped and only 17 will travel to Madang. Accompanying the team will be three officials, Coach, Trainer and the Team Manager.

The 23 players squad that was announced on Sunday, after the pre-season final is as follows: Jim Amos, Richard Gebob, Joe

The three team officials who will travel with the team are, Walo Valu - Coach, Ume Ahi - Trainer and Harry Rambai - Team Manager.

President and a selector of Morobe league, Orere said they have selected the best outfit and they are aiming for the best outcome.

Coach Valu is an experienced coach. However despite not having a coaching certificate, he has a good record, Orere confirmed.

Meanwhile, the A grade grandfinal that was scheduled to be played on Sunday did not eventuate. This was due to lack of time, after a brawl broke out during a B grade game between West and Hawks.

President Orere said that when the fight broke out the supporters also invaded the field. While trying to calm down the fight, the time for the main grandfinal game ran out. The grandfinal will be played at a later date.

The other B grade game between Ten Mile Brothers and Angco United ended in a 16 whole draw after extra time. The game was then called off and is awaiting executive decision.

Bougainville trials reserves rule

by FRANK POMOSO

Bougainville

BOUGAINVILLE Rugby League will be trying out a new rule when the season proper kicks off, next weekend.

Bougainville league president, Paul Marshall told Rugby League News that the new rule involves the A grade reserves and will be on trial for a few weeks when the season proper starts.

Players who sit on the reserve bench must be players who have already had a game in the reserve grade. Fresh players will not be allowed on the reserve bench.

Those players tend to be late starters when they take the field. If the player had an early game then he will go straight into the game pattern with the first thirteen.

He said that the Sydney league has been using this rule for quite some time now. His other reason for intending to introduce the rule is to encourage players to play more instead of sitting on the reserve bench.

The other problem they are facing at the moment is the lack of touch judges to officiate the A grade games.

At the moment no-one is interested. He said. "Most of the time we get juniors as touch judges and we do not want this to continue." The senior players must now put something back into the league.

He said that now the clubs will provide two players from the A grade to be touch judges. The two teams that will play on Sunday will provide touch judges for the games on Saturday. While the two teams that play on Saturday will provide touch judges for Sunday games.

The clubs who fail to provide touch judges will be fined K30. He said by doing this, they are hoping to improve the standard of the games.

At the moment two clubs are not in favour of introducing this rule. But the other clubs have shown positive reactions to it.

Marshall said, "We want senior players from the A grade to run the lines and help the referees," because they know the rules better than the juniors who volunteer.

Meanwhile, Bougainville select side for the zone trials to be held in Rabaul will be announced next Wednesday night. The side will be coached by Kumul coach, Skerry Palanga.

"We are the defending champions and we are hoping to retain the title again this year," Marshall confirmed. "We have lot of good players to chose from and some old hands to lead the way."

Air Niugini appeal against West's win

THE grand final of the North Solomons Rugby league pre-season may not eventuate as there is a dispute as to who would be Easts opponents in the game. In the semi finals played last weekend Wests defeated Air Niugini 25-22.

But Air Niugini has appealed against the win.

They claim that Wests second rower Joel Amu did not complete his five minute stint in the sin-bin before coming to score the winning try.

Wests on the other hand are saying that Air Niugini's Justin Kokiai was not qualified to play in the finals. Kokiai a former Sea Raiders player has signed with Air Niugini club this year. But he had not played any games with Air Niugini since the pre-season started. He had his first game for Air Niugini last weekend.

Wests are claiming that, according to PNGRFL rules, a player is not qualified to play in the finals if he had not played three full consecutive games with the team prior to the finals.

North Solomons league secretary, Peter Sepe told Rugby League News that the league executive have yet to decide who to award the points to.

According to Sepe, probably both teams will have six points subtracted from their final points. If this course is taken then Wests will still be the winner.

If Air Niugini had not played Kokiai they should have secured an easy place in the grand final this weekend. But Sepe said, which ever team plays, the grand-final will still go to favourites, Easts.

Easts are known for their open football, clean tackling and very fast backline movement.

If Wests play them, then they are also capable of causing an upset. They have a good backing up forward pack. They will also rely on half back Joe Aki. He is a sneaky and a fast thinking player.

If it is Air Niugini playing Easts then they are also capable of causing headaches. They have fast forward and backline players. They are also known for their thinking play. Air Niugini also has a best goal kicker in the competition. So they should rely on him for the yardage and any valuable goal kicking opportunities.

Despite that, Sepe said Easts are the early favourites to win the pre-season grand final. Five eighth Philip Misikarau should man the backline with his thinking play while forward Tom Wakuri will lead the pack in the front.

Easts were robbed of the North Solomons premiership by Air Niugini last year and they will be out for revenge.

After the grand final on Sunday, the North Solomons squad for the zone trials will be announced.

Kubu Cup for

by IAN KAKARERE

OVER the Easter weekend the four Kiunga clubs will challenge for the 'KUBU CUP'.

The Kiunga Rugby League President, Thomas Kubu, said that the cup named in his honour, will be presented to the club which emerges victorious over two days of gruelling rugby league.

"All four clubs are pretty tough, so the battle for the Cup will provide spectators with plenty of action," Doctor Kubu said.

Doctor Kubu also said the Kiunga league will award the winner of the Kubu Cup a cash prize of K100.00.

Last weekend there were no games in Kiunga, as it was the first of a series 'byes' or rest weekends that the Kiunga League have programmed for 1988.

Doctor Kubu said that the rest weekends are times when players can get over their injuries and the clubs organise fund raising activities.

Companies urged to assist sports in Vanimo

BUSINESS firms in Vanimo have been urged to take a more active role in the development and promotion of sports in the province.

Vanimo Rugby League secretary Vimuru Iagata made the call after the Hawks RL club was presented with a K500 cheque by the management of the Narimo Island hotel on March 18th.

"I would also like to thank the manager Trevor Downs and the management of the Narimo Island Hotel for their assistance and will make sure that the money is used for the benefit of the club," Iagata who is also the patron of Hawks said.

Iagata urged other firms to follow the example set by the Narimo Island Hotel and sponsor the five clubs in the league. He mentioned big firms such as the multi-million kina Vanimo Forest Products which should become involved in the sponsoring of sports in the province.

Last year a Wewak based company Garamut Enterprises sponsored the Sea-Eagles club in Vanimo league.

The Vanimo league has written letters to all the business firms in Vanimo seeking assistance, but to date no response has been received.

Meanwhile Vanimo selectors have announced a 22 man training squad for the Northern zone trials to be held in Madang on the 18th and 19th of April.

Selectors have also named a coach and a trainer for the side. Defence Force personnel has been engaged to train the Vanimo squad before they depart for Madang.

League secretary Iagata and President

Daniel Maskim told Rugby League News in Vanimo that the selection is not final.

The final squad will be selected later to represent Vanimo at the zone trials.

The league has also appointed a committee to raise the necessary funds to send the Vanimo squad to Madang.

Gasup out to pull a tooth or two

Player Profile

by JOE MARTIN

"I like everything about Rugby league and I like to play the game hard," are the words of hard running Waigani and potential Kumul forward Gasup Apaio now playing in the National Capital League.

Twenty four year old Gasup is a utility player and after only four years of playing seems ready for representative duties.

But Gasup is not new to representative football. In 1985 he was selected in the Papua New Guinea Universities side to play in the World Universities Rugby tournament in New Zealand.

He opted for his studies rather than take the three week trip.

Gasup made a greater mark when he was selected last year as a forward in the Southern zone team. However Gasup only played in the first round of games at Rabaul.

He could not play in the second round of games in Lae due to study commitments.

Gasup was doing his final year in dentistry at the University of Papua New Guinea.

It was indeed a near miss for his greatest objective, the Kumul jumper.

The Kumul jumper however is still his ultimate desire. The solidly built Eastern Highlander from Tombena village is giving it all he has.

His campaign will be strengthened this year as he has completed his studies and is now a dental doctor.

Gasup is a keen trainer and rarely misses a training night with his team. On non training nights he runs to maintain fitness and to build his stamina.

He is the captain of the clubs A grade side and leads his charges by example. He is characterised by his straight up the guts runs and ability to stop his opponents at all costs.

Like all other league players, Gasup has players he admires too. On the local scene Tony Kila of Air Niugini Port Moresby is his pick.

"Tony is small but is a tackling machine," he said. Overseas his idol is Ray Price the former Paramatta skipper and lock.

"This guy takes the field and plays 80 minutes tireless football, doesn't complain and takes things as they come. I want to be like him," he said with a smile.

Gasup is the third in the family of 8, four boys and four girls. The two before him are boys and one, Kenneth plays as a winger with Brothers in Henganofi.

His family supports him in his league career as they have supported him in his professional career.

"They all know that I have achieved something through the game and encourage me to go on."

After completing grade 10 at the Kainantu High School, Gasup matriculated from Aiyura National High School in 1982.

At Aiyura he was introduced to Australian Rules and loved the game. Rugby league never occurred to him.

In 1983 when he did his Science foundation year at UPNG he had his first taste of rugby league. He played along side fellow Eastern Highlands students with the Easts team in the UPNG's Highlands Rugby league competition and shone as a lock.

He pursued his career further by joining the Waigani club and played lock in the clubs A grade side. He has held that position to date. Now Gasup will entertain no thought of playing another sport.

"Rugby league is a dominant game in the Eastern Highlands and it is in our blood," he said.

He refused to comment on the administration of the NCRF but was content playing in the league. "The rest is for the spectators to judge," he observed.

But what is he like on the field. Gasup said when the game is tough he retaliates with tough defensive football.

Gasup is a Seventh Day Adventist and lists reading, camping out and listening to religious music as his hobbies.

His only dislike is the way the Port Moresby league views the National capital league as second rate. "The biggest challenge for us now is to prove the nation wrong," he said.

Gasup is looking forward to finding a partner and "settling" down.

"I should be able to find one in the not too distant future," he hinted.

"But first of all the woman must be a good cook," he said jokingly.

"I also want her to be sports minded so that she could help me whenever possible."
