

June 3, 1986

MEDIA ADVISORY June 3, 1986

EVENT: LUNCHEON ADDRESS BY MEXICAN SECRETARY OF FOREIGN

RELATIONS BERNARDO SEPULVEDA AMOR, AT 1:40 P.M., DURING THE CENTER FOR U.S.-MEXICAN STUDIES' SIXTH ANNUAL BRIEFING SESSION FOR PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTS

DATE: Monday, June 9, 1986

LOCATION: La Jolla Marriott Hotel

SPONSOR: UCSD's Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies

MEDIA CONTACTS: Don Wyman, Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies, at the Marriott Hotel,

Or Alixandra Williams, Public Information Office, 452-3120

REMARKS: Sepulveda's talk will be open to non-participating journalists. Special seating will be available. A question and answer period will begin at approximately 2 p.m. Working journalists will be seated by approximately 1:30 p.m. As Secretary of Foreign Relations, Sepulveda is the second-highest in rank in the Mexican government. Before attaining his present post, he was Ambassador of Mexico to the United States, and Secretary of International Affairs of the Institutional Revolutionary Party (PRI). He is also a specialist on international law, and was often a member of Mexican delegations to United Nations' conferences, attending the U.N. Conference on the Law of the Sea and the Vienna Conference on the Law of Treaties. Since 1967, Sepulveda has been Professor of International Law and of International Organizations at El Colegio de Mexico.

For more information about the conference, contact Don Wyman or Graciela Platero at 452-4503

MEDIA ADVISORY May 23, 1986

EVENT: LUNCHEON ADDRESS BY MEXICAN SECRETARY OF FOREIGN

RELATIONS BERNARDO SEPULVEDA AMOR, AT 1:40 P.M., DURING THE CENTER FOR U.S.-MEXICAN STUDIES' SIXTH ANNUAL BRIEFING SESSION FOR PROFESSIONAL JOURNALISTS

DATE: Monday, June 9, 1986

LOCATION: La Jolla Marriott Hotel

SPONSOR: UCSD's Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies

MEDIA CONTACTS: Don Wyman, Center for U.S.-Mexican Studies, at the

Marriott Hotel,

Or Alixandra Williams, Public Information Office, 452-3120

REMARKS: Sepulveda's talk will be open to non-participating journalists. Special seating will be available. A question and answer period will begin at approximately

2 p.m. Working journalists will be seated by approximately 1:30 p.m.

For more information, contact Don Wyman or Graciela Platero at 452-4503