

Media Advisory - Welcome Week activities

September 13, 1979

SUBJECT: Welcome Week activities will be conducted the week prior to the beginning of classes on September 24 at UC San Diego. Beginning September 16, orientation and fun activities for new and incoming students are planned.

DATES AND TIMES: See listings.

CONTACT: Leslie Franz, Public Information Office, 452-3120.

HIGHLIGHTS: Sunday, Sept. 16

Noon Dormitories open for students.

Monday, Sept. 17

9 a.m. All-campus Jog (also Wednesday and Friday), Main Gym steps. Choose from one-, three- or five-mile run designed to acquaint new students with the campus.

12:30 p.m. Mexican Fiesta Lunch, Third College Quad. Tacos, rice and beans will be served, with mariachis and a musical history of the Chicanos as entertainment.

Tuesday, Sept. 18

9 a.m. "Managing Stress to Improve Your Grades," room 107 Tioga Hall, Muir campus. Seminar for students. Repeated at 10 a.m. Thursday.

Wednesday, Sept. 19

10 a.m. Black Freshmen Orientation, Student Center Lounge.

Information for students on activities, philosophies and goals of black student community.

11 a.m. "Men and Women Together," International Center.

Informal seminar concerning communication and sexuality between the sexes.

Noon "An Alternative to a Boring Education--A Critical Look at the University," International Center. Analysis of student's role in controlling his or her education.

1:30 p.m. Faculty Panel Discussion, International Center. Sanford Lakoff and Peter Cowhey will discuss "Scientists and Political Activity."

3 p.m. Faculty Panel Discussion, International Center. Clifford Grobstein, Donald Helsinki and Bruce Reynolds will discuss "Biomedical Research and Its Social Implications."

Thursday, Sept. 20

11:30 a.m. Bizarre Bazarre, Student Center. Student organizations will set up booths and provide food and entertainment.

8:30 p.m. Sam Hinton Concert, Revelle Cafeteria. Hinton, well-known folklorist and singer, will perform in a one-man concert.

Friday, Sept. 21

9 a.m. Faculty Panel Discussion, Student Center Lounge. George Anagnostopoulos, Theodore Friedman and Linda Strauss will discuss "Scientific Knowledge and Human Values." 10 a.m. Black Community Get-Together, North Conference Room, Student Center. Black faculty, staff and students will get acquainted.

10:30 a.m. Faculty Panel Discussion, Student Center Lounge. Roger Revelle, James Arnold and Cal Prussin will discuss "Technology and the Needs of Developing Countries."

2 p.m. Intercollegiate Recreation: The Un-Olympics. Games such as the egg toss, a pie-eating contest, a balloon stomp and thumb wrestling will be sponsored by the Recreation Department.

NOTE TO PRESS: These events are not open to the public. We are letting you know about them because of any story or picture possibilities that may interest you.

(September 13, 1979)