

Media Advisory, UCSD site to introduce teachers to new history and Social Science curriculum

August 7, 1990

EDUCATION WRITERS MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: UCSD is one of six California sites chosen to introduce K-12 teachers to California's precedent-setting new history and social science curriculum. Said to be the most exciting reform in the history curriculum in decades, the California framework is being discussed and studied throughout the country and will have a long-term effect on education in California. Among the changes in this new approach are a greater emphasis on world history, religion, geography, women's studies, ethnicity, cultural literacy and civic values.

Detailed information on the project is attached.

DATE/TIME: AUGUST 1-21, 1990 9:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M.

PLACE: UCSD campus: Extension Complex and other locations.

CONTACTS: Dr. Robert Ritchie, UCSD Professor of History and Associate Chancellor 534-6864; Winifred Cox, University Communications Office 534-0363

(August 7, 1990)