New Bern, April 28th 1862

Sir

Although you have not sought any testimonial from me in approbation of your conduct whilst under my command for the last eight months, yet, with the hope it may serve you, I would state, and it gives me pleasure to do so, that your gentlemanly conduct, attention to duty, and unflinching morality, have merited my entire approval.

Very respectfully,
Your alt<sup>o</sup> serv<sup>t</sup>,
A. Murray.

To
