

Calendar Item, UCSD International Center presents free public lecture

April 21, 1988

Media contact: Sandra Garrett, 534-3120

CALENDAR ITEM

The University of California, San Diego International Center will present a free public lecture by Director of the Peace Corps Loret Miller Ruppe, May 13, 1988, at 7:30 p.m. at Peterson Hall. Ruppe, appointed in 1981 by President Reagan, is the featured lecturer for the UCSD International Center's annual Clark Distinguished Lecture and will speak on "The Peace Corps of the 1980s and its Future in the 1990s." Tickets to the lecture and a reception that follows at the International Center are free, however, because seating will be limited, the public is urged to pick up tickets in advance at the International Center or UCSD Box Office. For more information call 534-UCSD.

(April 21, 1988)