

Program on unaccompanied modern works for the violin to be given by Yfrah Neaman on November 9

November 3, 1961

A program on unaccompanied modern works for the violin will be given by Yfrah Neaman, English musician, at the University of California, San Diego, on Thursday evening, November 9, at 8:00 p.m.

The recital will be presented by the Committee for Arts and Lectures of the San Diego campus. The public is invited. Admission is free.

The program will consist of "Fantasy in Two Movements," by Ross Lee Finney, "Chaconne," by Roberto Gerhard, which was written especially for Mr. Neaman, and "Sonata," by Roger Sessions.
