A special matinee performance on Saturday, Feb. 8, has been added to the final week's run of "The Birthday Party" at the University of California, San Diego.

Harold Pinter's chilling comedy-mystery will be presented at 2 p.m. in the UCSD Theatre on the Matthews campus.

Admission is $1.50 for students and $3 for the general public. Ticket information is available at the UCSD drama department, 452-3791.

Previously announced performances at 8 p.m. Feb. 5-9 have been sold out. The UCSD drama department production was also presented to full houses Jan. 31, Feb. 1 and 2, the first week of the run.

Considered a classic of contemporary theatre, "The Birthday Party" is the bizarre story of events that happen in a boarding house on the English seacoast.

Directing the UCSD production is Dr. Arthur Wagner, chairman of the drama department. The cast includes Larry Deckel, Joan Rosenfels, Rich Revelli, Pat DeSantis, Bob MacDougall and Sue Denaker.
