

August 7, 1960

OUTLINE FOR PLAY, TV SHOW OR MOVIE

(Adaptation of "The Voice of the Dolphins" - leaving out the dolphins)

1960

1. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Class discusses Russian disarmament proposal.
Questions: Could the Russians not hide away bombs in secret?
What would happen in a disarmed world if North Korea attacked South Korea?

1970

2. Discussion in the State Department on the occasion of the Communist Revolution in Iraq. The Secretary is briefed before calling on the White House.
3. Russian politicians discuss how to respond to the landing of American troops in Jordan and the Lebanon.
4. Oratory in the Senate, in response to the first Russian Note, demanding "two for one".
5. Russian scientists are called to the Kremlin in preparation of the second Russian note.
6. Meeting of the National Security Council, resulting in the decision to ask Gallup to conduct a Poll.
7. The Gallup Poll - interviewers are shown talking to people in various Mid-Western cities.
8. Oratory in the Senate, after withdrawal of American troops from the Middle East, making "dire predictions".

1971

9. Conflict within the Kremlin revolving around the issue of reducing the Russian Army and Navy and on what to do with the funds saved.

9. Meeting of the President's Science Advisory Committee on the issue of the anti-missile.
10. Oratory in the Senate, and the unanimous vote appropriating $20 billion for the development of the anti-missile missile.

1972

11. Conflict in the Kremlin over the issues of reducing the Russian Army and Navy and on what to do with the funds saved.

1975

12. Communist propaganda stressing moral superiority of Russia. Speeches given by Communists in Dresden, in Bombay and at a student's meeting in Rio de Janiero.

1978

13. The President has breakfast with key members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to discuss the Iranian upheavals and explain the alternatives facing the nations - with the development of the anti-missile missile lagging.
14. Meeting of the Security Council deciding on the American proclamation.

1979

15. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Seminar extolling the stability of the atomic stalemate.

1980

16. Cabinet meetings in Japan, Italy and Germany - Ministers of Defense explain the necessity to convert to submarine defence.

1983

17. The Japanese Cabinet meets and decides to resign and let the militarists take over.
18. Meeting of the German Cabinet discussing the ascendancy of the People's Party - demonstrations of the People's Party in front of the German Parliament Building.
19. Hearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the danger of an anonymous attack by a Japanese or German submarine.
20. Mr. X in New York talks to architect and banker about moving to Arizona and transferring funds to Switzerland.

1984

21. Cabinet meeting in Peking discussing the Indian fiasco and Formosa.
22. Commencement Address at Harvard University by the Secretary of State proposing general and complete disarmament.
23. Editor-in-Chief of Pravda has editorial conference on how to reject the speech of the U.S. Secretary of State.

1985

24. Russian scientists ask for permission to attend Vienna Conference.
25. The Vienna Conference.

1987

26. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Seminar discusses value of disarmament agreement that has just been concluded.
27. In the Kremlin, discussion of Russian proposal to Poland.
28. Discussion in the corridors of the UN of the Polish blackmail - meeting of the General Assembly voting for compensation of Poland by two-thirds majority.
29. Cabinet meeting in Berlin, discussing the Break-up of the People's Party.

30. Speeches and the vote in the German Parliament on the seating of French delegates.
31. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Seminar discusses Russian proposal to accelerate disarmament and predicts aid to under-developed nations will be greatly increased.
32. Discussion in the Kremlin. Decisions reached henceforth to charge for services of Russian experts to under-developed nations what the traffic will bear.
33. House Appropriation Committee eliminates Foreign Aid from Budget.

1939

34. Family Hanker receives letter from Treasury with a check for $1500 enclosed and the request to spend this amount within a year, please. Discusses how to spend the money.
35. Three-man panel at Harvard tries to forecast the future.

August 7, 1960.

2 carbon

OUTLINE FOR PLAY, TV SHOW OR MOVIE

(Adaption of "The Voice of the Dolphins" - leaving out the dolphins)

1960

1. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Class discusses Russian disarmament proposal.

Questions: Could the Russians not hide away bombs in secret?,
What would happen in a disarmed world if North Korea attacked South Korea?

1970.

2. Discussion in the State Department on the occasion of the Communist Revolution in Iraq. The Secretary is briefed before calling on the White House.
3. Russian politicians discuss how to respond to the landing of American troops in Jordan and the ~~Kennan~~ Lebanon.
4. Oratory in the Senate, in response to the first Russian Note, demanding "two for one".
5. Russian scientists are called to the Kremlin in preparation of the second Russian note.
6. Meeting of the National Security Council, resulting in the decision to ask Gallup to conduct a Poll.
7. The Gallup Poll - interviewers are shown talking to people in various mid-western cities.
8. Oratory in the Senate, after withdrawal ~~of~~ of American troops from the Middle East, making "dire predictions".

1971

9. Conflict within the Kremlin ~~concerning~~ revolving around the issue of reducing the Russian Army and Navy and on what to do with the funds saved.

9. Meeting of the President's Science Advisory Committee on the issue of the anti-missile missile.
10. Oratory in the Senate, and the unanimous vote appropriating $20 billion for the development of the anti-missile missile.

1972

11. Conflict in the Kremlin over the issues of reducing the Russian Army and Navy and on what to do with the funds saved.

1975

12. Communist propaganda stressing moral superiority of Russia. Speeches given by Communists in Dresden, in Bombay and at a students' meeting in Rio de Janeiro.

1978

13. The President has breakfast with key members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee to discuss the Iranian upheavals and explain the alternatives facing the nations - with the development of the anti-missile missile lagging.
14. Meeting of the Security Council deciding on the American ~~XXXX~~ proclamation.

1979

15. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Seminar extolling the stability of the atomic stalemate.

~~16xxxxThexxxxxxxHarvardxxxxPoliticalxxxxSciencexxxxSeminarxxxx~~

1980

16. Cabinet meetings in Japan, Italy and Germany - Ministers of Defence explain the necessity to convert to submarine defence.

1983

- 17.
- ~~18.~~ 19. The Japanese Cabinet meets and decides to resign and let the militarists take over.
- 18.
- ~~20.~~ 20. Meeting of the German Cabinet discussing the ascendancy of the People's Party - demonstrations of the People's Party in front of the German Parliament Building.
19. Hearing before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on the danger of an anonymous attack by a Japanese or German submarine.
20. Mr. X in New York talks to architect and banker about moving to Arizona and transferring funds to Switzerland.

1984

21. Cabinet meeting in Peking discussing the Indian fiasco and Formosa.
22. Commencement Address at Harvard University by the Secretary of State proposing general and complete disarmament.
23. ~~D~~ Editor-in-Chief of Pravda has editorial conference on how to reject the speech of the U.S. Secretary of State.

1985 ~~24x~~

24. Russian scientists ask for permission to attend Vienna Conference.
25. The Vienna Conference.

1987

26. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Seminar discusses value of disarmament agreement that has just been concluded.
27. In the Kremlin, discussion of Russian proposal to Poland.
28. Discussion in the corridors of the UN of the Polish blackmail - meeting of the General Assembly voting for compensation of Poland by two-thirds majority.
29. Cabinet meeting in Berlin, discussing the Break-up of the People's Party.

30. Speeches and the vote in the German Parliament on the seating of French delegates.
31. Three-man panel at Harvard Political Science Seminar discusses Russian proposal to accelerate disarmament and predicts aid to under-developed nations will be greatly increased.
32. Discussion in the Kremlin. Decisions reached henceforth to charge for services of Russian experts to under-developed nations what the traffic will bear.
33. House Appropriation Committee eliminates Foreign Aid from Budget.

1988

34. Family Harker receives letter from Treasury with a check for $1500 enclosed and the request to spend this amount within a year, please. Discusses how to spend the money.
35. Three-man panel at Harvard tries to forecast the future.