Maria helpim

Fr. Alfred Maravilla, SDB

MARIA Helpim is a title known to many pidgin speakers in PNG. But what was the origin of such a Marian title? A bit of history might be of great help.

In 1572 Christian Europe was in a very great danger. The mighty Muslim Turkish fleet threatened an invasion. Should they succeed Europe should certainly be forced to convert to Islam. Pope St. Pius V asked everyone to seek Mary's intercession through the recitation of the Holy Rosary. Miraculously the outnumbered Christian fleet, under the command of Don Juan of Spain obtained a complete victory in the naval battle of Lepanto.

To commemorate such a decisive victory Pope St. Pius V ordered the celebration of the feast of the Most Holy Rosary and the addition in the Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary the invocation Help of Christians, Pray for us!

Later the Blessed Virgin's help was again manifested with the victory of the Christians under Prince Eugene of Savoy over the Turks near the walls of Vienna in 1683. In thanksgiving Pope Pius VII formed the Confraternity of Mary Help of Christians. This Confraternity flourished especially in Munich, Germany.

Pope Pius VII instituted the feast of Mary Help of Christians to be celebrated every May 24th. The circumstances are well known. Emperor Napoleon Bonaparte of France has responded to his excommunication in 1809 by abducting the Pope and pressuring him to sign a treaty that would give Napoleon powers over the Church and the state in France and all conquered territories. Anti-clerical papers at that time predicted "not Pius VII but Pius the last". But at the heights of his victories, while rosary petitions went up for Mary's help on behalf of the frail Pope, Napoleon met his defeat at Waterloo. On May 24 he signed his abdication from power at Fountainbleau. That very day Pope Pius VII returned from his 5 year exile to a tumultuous welcome in Rome. A year later, in 1816, he decreed that the feast of Mary Help of Christians be celebrated every May 24 "to commemorate the un-hoped for help of Mary most holy towards the Pope and

Entrustment of the Home to Our Lady Help of Christians

Most Holy Virgin Mary, appointed by God to be the help of Christians, we choose you as the Mother and Protector of our home. We ask you to favour us with your powerful protection.

Preserve our home from every danger; from fire, flood, lightning, storm, earthquakes, thieves, rascals, and from every other danger.

Bless us, protect us, defend us, keep as your own all the people who dwell in this home.

Protect us from all accidents and misfortunes, but above all obtain for us the most important grace of avoiding sin.

Mary Help of Christians, pray for all those who dwell in this home which is entrusted to you for all time. Amen.

Pre bilong Famili long Maria Helpim

Mary Help of Christians, pray for us! Santu Virgo Maria, God i makim yu olsem helpim bilong ol Kristen manmeri, mipela i makim yu olsem mama na wasmeri blong haus bilong mipela. Mipela i askim yu long laikim mipela wantaim strongpela lukaut bilong yu.

Blesim mipela, lukautim mipela, sambai long mipela, holim ol manmeri istap long dispela haus olsem bilong yu stret.

Lukautim mipela long olgeta birua na kainkain hevi, na antap long ol dispela, givim mipela dispela nambawan grasia bilong abrusim sin.

Maria helpim blong ol Kristen manmeri, pre long helpim mipela!

Fountainbleau or Alexishafen. Had such victories never taken place Mary's help would still be experienced and held in veneration by the faithful. The title Help of Christians shows Mary as a servant helper, humbly subordinate to Christ. But with it goes a powerful dimension that will not let anything stand in the way to Christ's redeeming mission. We, and every Christian, experience her help as she intervenes to assist the Church or each individual believer when things are at its darkest. The run-away teenager, the disillusioned youth, frightened refugee, the deserted wife and children, the struggling father can all immediately identify with one who herself experienced fear, exile, pain, loneliness and confusion. "By her motherly help," pointed out Pope John Paul II while visiting a poor parish, "Mary liberates us so that as a community we may experience freedom, dignity, love and joy".

Maria helpim bilong ol Kristen manmeri, Pre long helpim mipela!

A workshop in Media and Values was recently run at St Fidelis Seminary at Fatima in the Western Highlands. About 20 final year students attended the workshop which was run by Fr Geoffrey Lee, the National Secretary of the Commission for Social Communications.

Media and values

The workshop, that went for a week, dealt with such issues as the power of media, the growing role mass media plays in our society and the values that media promotes. Also discussed where relevant church's documents on social communication, the latest for people in the Pacific being 'Ecclesia in Oceania' which has a section on the role of mass media and evangelization. Particular emphasis, in the workshop, was given to advertising and movies.

The idea of the workshop was to teach seminarians to become more media literate in order that they can make critical judgments about the positive or negative values mass media may be promoting. This is a skill which is increasingly needed in today's growing media driven society where the term literacy can no longer be limited to just the printed word.

Rape trauma counselling training in Goroka

By Naomi Yupae

Family Voice is one of the leading agencies in the Eastern Highlands Province to raise awareness about child rights using the Convention on the Rights of the Child and taking a pro-active stand in dealing with child sexual abuse. The establishment of the Provincial Family and Sexual Violence Action Committee is helping to bring all the stakeholders together to address issues related to family and sexual violence in a coordinated manner.

Family Voice organised a training on Rape Trauma Counselling for 23 participants. Sr. Lourdes Hummes, SSpS, Director of the National Catholic Family Life Apostolate, provided the training. The training was funded by the Law and Justice Sector Program of the Eastern Highlands Provincial Government Secretariat.

The participants represented various organisations in Goroka and Kainantu who work with victims, survivors and perpetrators of family and sexual violence. They included personnel from Government Departments like the Police, Community Development, Health, NGOs and Churches.

The training was organised in preparation for the trauma rooms which will be opened at the Goroka and Kainantu hospitals to provide support to victims and perpetrators of family and sexual violence. The content of the training included topics on rape, child sexual abuse, the causes and effects on the victims.

Eastern Highlands Family Voice Incorporation provides a 'voice' for all family members by:

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

Bishop Francesco of Goroka writes

LET'S continue the exploration of the faith taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The Church is Catholic

Catholic means universal.

This term 'universal' means that the Church is complete. She is complete because Christ is present in her fully, having accepted her as his body. United with Christ, the Church has within herself, the fullness of Christ who is himself completely filled with God's fullness.

The term 'Catholic' means also that the Church has received the mandate to go to the whole world and proclaim the Good News. All the people of the world, separated from each other because of division and hatred, are called to work for unity and be formed into 'One new People' under the leadership of God.

The Church embracing all the people of the world is fully present in particular areas called dioceses. Dioceses are communities of Christian faithful united by faith, the celebration of the sacraments, and in full communion with the Bishop. All the Dioceses united among themselves and in communion with the Church of Rome, under the leadership of the Pope, express the qualities of universality and catholicity.

Who belong to the Catholic Church?

As a general definition it is understood that to the Church, called the People of God, belong, in different ways, the catholic faithful, all others who believe in Christ, and all mankind because God wants everybody to be saved.

In a more specified definition it is understood that to the community of the Church, belong those who are fully incorporated because they received the Spirit of Christ, accepted the means of salvation of the Church (Word, Sacraments, prayer) and are joined to the visible organization of the Church of Christ, who guides her through Peter and the Bishops.

Those who were initially fully joined with the Church, but have discontinued to grow in charity and holiness, belong to the Church in name only and not with their hearts. They may be not saved, in the end, if they continue to be distanced from her (LG 14).

The Church and the non-Christian.

Those people who have not received the Good News of Jesus Christ are related to the People of God in various ways.

The Jewish people are related to the Church because they were the first to respond to a specific revelation of God preparing for the coming of Jesus Christ.

The Muslim are related to the Church because their faith is based on the faith of Abraham, the father in faith and together with all believers they adore the one and merciful God.

For all other people who belong to all other non-Christian religions, the Church recognizes the common origin of all human races searching for God but not yet fully revealed in Jesus Christ. The Church acknowledges the goodness and truth are found in those religions as preparation for the Gospel announced by Jesus calling everyone to the fullness of life in God.

It is in the Church of Christ that all humanity will discover and find its unity and salvation.

Outside the Church there is no salvation.

Salvation offered to all humanity comes from the mind and heart of the Trinity. Christ announced this salvation and continues to announce it through the Church.

The affirmation that outside the Church there is no salvation does not mean that those who have never heard the Gospel will be condemned. They will be saved by seeking God with a sincere heart and by following the guidance of their own conscience. God looks into the hearts of people and will offer them salvation. Still the Church has an obligation to proclaim the Good News of Jesus Christ to these people also.

There is no salvation for those who, fully aware and knowing that the Church is the way to salvation offered by Christ to humanity, will not accept and refuse to enter the community of the Church or, after being incorporated into her, refuse to stay in the Church.

Catholics - keep your Catholic faith

Max Modapita from the Kaimana Catholic Mission, Kerema, writes

I am highly respectful of the nation's law of "Freedom of Religion". In appreciation of this law, I accept the Catholic Church as my first and only religion in my life. In addition to this I made public promises, on the days of my baptism and confirmation, that I would be faithful to the Catholic Faith. I can proudly say, that no matter what, I am a Catholic and I will live as a Catholic and I will die as a Catholic.

What worries me though is that many Catholics do not have this attitude and stability in their faith. They cannot defend their faith either. So many do not express it freely and openly. That is why many Catholics are only following the crowd and when ever anything pops up like a blossoming flower they all flock to it. But once it deteriorates, they suffer the consequences.

As a concerned Kamea Catholic man, I would like to make it very clear to all the Catholic of Papua New Guinea, especially to Kamea's in the Gulf Province, who are Catholic's now and those who have been Catholics. We were discovered, settled, nursed and educated by the Catholic Church for almost thirty years now. She has planted the Catholic Faith right into the depths of our hearts; not only by preaching the Word of God but also by giving lives and shedding blood for us. In return, what have we done? How much respect and appreciation do we have for our Church?

Wake up! Open your eyes and see how much the Catholic Church has done for you. If you are a Catholic, keep your Catholic faith or at least have respect for the work that She is doing. Do not be like a butterfly flapping from one blossoming flower to the next looking for sweet nectar.

Where do we go from here?

Sr. Lois Mathieu, D.W.
Catholic Health Services, Kiunga

Recently the Catholic Health Services of the Diocese of Kiunga organized two workshops for their staff working in remote areas. With the assistance of the National AIDS Council they were able to offer this training to 56 of their Health Workers. With local contribution they covered part of the cost of these workshops.

For the first week facilitators were Rody Ukin and Alfonse Saito from OK Tedi mining, Tabubil. The second workshop was facilitated by Clemens Paime from Wewak Diocese and Rody Ukin. These facilitators who followed the Training of Trainers from the National AIDS Council Training Team accepted to share with the participants their knowledge and skills.

The theme for the week was Introduction of HIV/Gender and Sexual Health. As the participants covered these important issues they received valuable lectures from the facilitators and also had meaningful group sharing sessions. Important questions were raised by the participants giving the group clear insights on the Health situation in their area and gave also the pattern of thinking of the participants on HIV/AIDS related issues.

A reality which touched participants deeply was the fact that when a person is found to be HIV positive, this person should not be labelled as having AIDS. When we know that a person has been diagnosed as HIV positive we need to remind ourselves that this simply means that the virus is present in the blood of the person. There is so much that the Health Worker can do to journey with persons who are HIV positive to help them to live positively.

During the week participants had the opportunity of receiving some skills in basic counselling. As they studied videos on this topic, they could easily put themselves in the place of the counsellor as well as in the place of the client. They realized, said Sr Lois, the importance of developing listening skills and a compassionate attitude.

Sister went on to say through the general topic of HIV - AIDS awareness the participants took time to reflect on human rights, stigma and discrimination. Health Workers must be able not only to take in this knowledge with their intellect but also apply it in concrete ways when dealing with people living with the HIV Virus or persons suffering from full blown AIDS. Our next duty, she said, is to pass on this valuable information to numerous groups of people that we encounter every day.

Following the Workshop the participants received a certificate of attendance from the National AIDS Council Office. "Having a certificate is one thing but putting that knowledge into practice is another," said Sr Lois. "This is why we are asking ourselves the question: 'Where do we go from here'? We need to look with eyes and heart at what is happening around us in our Health Sub Centres, in our Corners, in our Schools and in our Hospitals to target the most important needs in an organized manner."

The next step of participants training will be to organize two weeks of basic counselling for select staff.

"To conclude," said Sr Lois, "I would like to quote one of the poems from Maura Mea who lives and works at the Hope for Living Centre in Port Moresby. Maura and her husband Max who have both been diagnosed HIV positive are providing care and support for other people living with HIV - AIDS. We thank Maura for passing on to us her booklet of Positive Reflections to guide us all on our respective journeys."

A CHANGE OF HEART

Living with HIV/AIDS can be hard for one.

I have learnt a lot.

My behaviour, character and attitude have really changed.

Before, when I was not affected I wouldn't listen to anyone.
I worried a lot about tomorrow or the next day, week, month or even year.
I never wanted to get closer to any sick person.
And I would always show my anger out.

Today all that has changed in me, I value people, time and places.
I have a great respect for the sick and afflicted and I live one day at a time.

The biggest things I have learnt to accept are:
To have a Peace of Mind, A Loving Heart
A Willing Spirit and A Helping Hand.
All this will make you live longer with HIV

(Positive Reflections: Maura Elarie Mea, Port Moresby, 2001)

Percentage of Catholics in the world slips

Zenit News Agency

The number of Catholics in the world is increasing, but their percentage has decreased slightly, according to newly released Church data.

The Statistical Yearbook of the Church for 2002, prepared by the Central Office of Church Statistics and just published by the Vatican press office, tracks data from the start of John Paul II's pontificate through 2002.

The yearbook indicates that the crisis of the dwindling ranks of diocesan priests has passed, but not the crisis of religious vocations.

The number of Catholic faithful rose from 757 million in 1978 to 1.07 billion at year-end 2002. By continent, the increase was 150% in Africa; 74% in Asia; 49% in Oceania; 45% in the Americas; and 5% in Europe.

Yet, the percentage of Catholics as a share of world population dropped. In 1978, 17.99% of the world's inhabitants were Catholic; in 1990, the tally was 17.68%; and in 2002, 17.2%.

Half the world's Catholics are in the Americas (49.9%); 26.15% in Europe;

12.84% in Africa; 10.3% in Asia; and 0.78% in Oceania. The overall number of priests decreased 3.78%, from 420,971 in 1978, to 405,058 in 2002.

A closer study of the data reveals that the number of diocesan priests increased by 1.85%, to 267,334 from 262,485. The number of religious priests fell by 13.1%, to 137,724 from 158,486 in 1978. Professed men religious (non-priests) plunged by 27.67%, from 75,802 in 1978 to 54,828 in 2002.

Professed women religious fell by 20.98%, from 990,768 to 782,932 in the same period.

Permanent deacons grew by 441%, as their ministry was reintroduced after the Second Vatican Council. In 1978 there were 5,562 permanent deacons; by 2002 they increased to 30,097.

The number of candidates to the priesthood (students of philosophy and theology), both in diocesan as well as in religious centers, soared from 63,882 in 1978 to 113,199 in 2002.

Of those, 65% are diocesan seminarians; 35% belong to religious congregations.

PNG youth support General Assembly

By Fr Vester Casaclang, SDB

Almost over 900 young people from all over Papua New Guinea pledged their support and cooperation for the General Assembly during the National Catholic Youth Pilgrimage held in West New Britain.

Bishop Douglas Young Inspired the Young people during his conference and got them to work on the discussion papers during the workshop time.

The GA secretariat was very happy to have collated the responses from the young people and the young people were able to clarify some of their ideas about the General Assembly.

Many of the Youths who have already done some GA discussion in their own Dioceses said that sharing with young people from other dioceses was a different experience all together. It had opened their eyes to other youth situations quite different from theirs.

Others expressed the consolation of knowing that they are not alone in the struggle and that many victories are being won and that success stories abound.

The youths of course had always remembered to pray and offer sacrifices for the success of the General Assembly.

Seeing how they survived the grueling days of the pilgrimage in the spirit of piety, unity and hard work, we are sure that heaven is doing something now.
