

Cinco de Mayo celebration events at UCSD

April 21, 1986

The public is invited to tempt their palate at the UCSD Cinco de Mayo celebration, May 2, with entertainment dished up by "Califas," Los Angeles' hottest Chicano/Latino Band; Mariachis; ballet folklóricos, a Grove Gallery art show, and authentic Mexican food from Cuatro Milpas.

Centering around the gym steps, the day's free events include dancing by the precolumbian group, "Mexicayotl" at 11:30 a.m., UCSD's Ballet Folklórico at 12:20 p.m., Mariachis at 1:15 p.m., the Ballet Folklórico from Tijuana's Centro Cultural at 2:20 p.m. and the traditional "Thank God It's Friday" at 4 p.m.

The MEChA sponsored celebration is co-sponsored by the Associated Students; the Students for Affirmative Action Committee; Third World Studies; Joe Watson, UCSD's Vice Chancellor for Undergraduate Affairs; the Chancellor's Office; Pepsi, and the University Events Office.

Honoring the day Mexican peasants, predominately Indians, defeated their French aggressors, the celebration begins at 11:30 a.m. at the Gym Steps and continues until 7 p.m. With the exception of a $3.00 charge for the Mexican cuisine, all events are free.
