

An exhibition of representational paintings by Barbara Strasen and Susan Cover at UCSD

October 13, 1972

An exhibition of representational paintings by San Diego artists Barbara Strasen and Susan Clover will open at the University of California, San Diego Art Gallery at 8 p.m., Friday, October 20.

The gallery is located in Room 1260 on the first floor of the Humanities Library Bldg. on the Revelle College campus. Normal hours for the gallery are 12-5 p.m., daily, and 8-10 p.m., Wednesdays. The exhibition will run through November 12.

The two artists are represented by the Orlando Gallery in Los Angeles. Ms. Strasen is currently on the faculty of Southwestern College in Chula Vista. Her three-dimensional paintings are composed of backdrop scenes with cutout figures placed at varying distances in front of them.

Ms. Clover's work deals with the placement of figures in seemingly restricted space in a two-dimensional format.

(October 13, 1972)