

Performance of music written by grad students

November 30, 1970

A program of musical compositions written by University of California, San Diego graduate students will be presented by the campus music department on Friday, December 4, at 8:30 p.m.

Featured composers are Robert MacDougall, Leslie Ruble, Daniel Goode, Ronald George, and John Mizelle.

The concert will take place in the Recital Hall, Building 409, Matthews Campus and is free and open to the public.