

UC composers' chamber music presented at Music Gallery

May 5, 1972

An evening of chamber music by University of California composers will be presented in UCSD's Music Gallery at 8:30 p.m., Thursday, May 11.

The gallery is located in Bldg. 408 on the Matthews Campus. The program, which is free and open to the public, is sponsored by the Intercampus Cultural Exchange Committee, the UCSD Music Department, and the Campus Programming Board.

Works to be presented include "Logs" by Paul Chihara from UCLA; "Spectra" written in 1967 by Richard Felciano from UC Berkeley; "By the Isar" written in 1969 by Will Ogdon, UCSD, and "Serenade for Bases" written in 1971 by Jerome Rosen from UC Davis.

Beverly Ogdon of Del Mar, who has performed many 20th-century works, will sing soprano in the concert. Nancy Turetzky, flautest, has performed numerous times with famous lutenist Joseph Ladone and the Hartford Symphony Orchestra, and will perform in the Thursday concert. Jerome Rosen will play clarinet and bass clarinet. Well-known UCSD faculty member Bertram Turetzky will play his contrabass.
