THE "LITTLE PARIISIENNE" has a delightful French flavor which fits Gaby perfectly. The play gives her the opportunity to display her talents as an ingenu leading woman, a dancer and a singer. In addition to the musical numbers, Gaby will be seen in several of her spectacular and sensational dances, which she did with Mr. Harry Pilcer at the Palace Theatre, London and New York Winter Garden. In London and in New York, as in every city where she appears, Gaby never fails to be the center of attraction. She is in reality a flashing meteor in a Pleiades of Pearls.

Gaby Is the most talked-of woman on earth.

Gaby Sings and Dances.

Gaby Wears the most expensive and most beautiful gowns of any woman on the stage or off.

Gaby Jewels are valued at over $2,600,000.

Gaby Changes her costumes twelve times at each performance.

Gaby Never wears the same costume twice in the same city.

Gaby Has never been seen in America outside of New York.

In order to give every woman the opportunity of seeing this most famous of all stars, she will appear at special matinees, the highest price for seats being only $1.00

One of the eccentricities of the little Parisienne, Gaby Deslys, is her devotion to a pet hen, a Victorian Leghorn. This she acquired in London before she sailed for America bringing it to this country for the purpose of laying fresh eggs for breakfast.

Not to see this most wonderful of all stage Geniuses is to carry a life-long regret.
