July 18, 1975

Estimado Miembro:

I have received a number of calls from Chicano organizational heads inquiring what their organizations could do to help as far as the Immigration issue is concerned. After receiving these calls and communicating with a number of individuals it was agreed and decided by all concerned that the best possible thing to do concerning this problem was to schedule a reorganizational meeting of past participating members of the Ad Hoc Committee to see if the Committee could be once again reactivated.

A Meeting has been scheduled for July 29, 1975 at 7:00 p.m. at St. Anthony's Church hall at 18th and Harding Avenue, in National City. If your organization wishes to continue being a participating member, please be present.

Items to be discussed at the meeting are as follows:

1. How many organizations wish to continue participating in the Ad Hoc Committee.
- 2.. Future political tactics and strategy.
3. Invitations to press conference to held in Tijuana August 9, 1975.

For any further information call 477-3800 or 477-3155

Sincerely,

Herman Baca

As concerned members of the Chicano community and after much frustration getting negative results, we feel compelled to inform the public of our findings and feelings regarding the Legal Aid Society of San Diego County.

The public and, in particular, the Chicano community, should know that Legal Aid discriminates against Chicanos and is not providing the quality nor quantity of legal services that the poverty community needs or deserves. For example, we have discovered that the Society has no equitable policy with respect to terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, promotion, transfer pay scale or even a personnel manual to follow as a guideline. Consequently, we have found that Legal Aid Society and Mr. Greg Knoll in particular discriminates against Chicanos in the following ways:

- (1) He has directly or indirectly forced five Chicano attorneys to resign since January 1, 1975.
- (2) Mr. Knoll has compelled one Chicano attorney to retain private counsel to file a complaint and a lawsuit against Legal Aid based on employment discrimination.
- (3) Mr. Knoll pays over $14,000 per year to a non-member of the Bar and has paid over $12,000 per year to his wife, another non-member of the Bar, and yet will not pay more than $618.00 per month to an equally qualified Chicano law graduate.
- (4) Mr. Knoll has denied a promotion to a highly qualified Chicano attorney in spite of strong recommendations from leaders and other members of the Chicano community.

(5) Mr. Knoll pays different pay to different people based on his personal friendship or association rather than on qualifications.

(6) Mr. Knoll refuses to obtain the services of qualified Chicano law graduates even where those Chicanos offer to volunteer their services.

(7) Mr. Knoll has compelled practically all of the Chicano staff in the Oceanside Legal Aid office to resign, thereby forcing eligible Chicanos to go without proper legal representation.

In conclusion, the essence of our concerns and complaints is that the policies and practices of Mr. Knoll have deprived the entire Chicano community in San Diego County of adequate legal services.

For further information please contact Mr. Alfredo F. Astorga at 722-0263.

Legal Aid Chicamos Quit Jobs Over Discrimination

By ANGELA MACK
Staff Writer

OCEANSIDE — Five Chicano members of the Legal Aid Society staff have resigned because of alleged discrimination and unfair employment practices.

The criticism against Legal Aid was aimed particularly at Greg Knoll, San Diego director of the society.

In a statement released by the Chicano

Federation, employment discrimination was the focus of the complaint and alleged, "the society has no equitable policy with respect to terms and conditions of employment, including hiring, promotion, transfer, pay scale or even a personnel manual to follow as a guideline."

Directors at the Legal Aid Society were unavailable for comment this weekend. However, a member of the Chicano Federation staff said he hopes for some kind of compromise before all the lawyers' resignations take effect.

"We're hopefully going to work out some kind of solution," said Phil Soto, a member of the federation staff. "Two of the Chicamos have resigned, and three more have submitted their resignation as of some time next month."

"We're mainly concerned with what kind of an effect this will have on the legal aid in the chicano community. There are a number of cases these lawyers are working on now, which will only be hurt if they leave."

The federation, which is concerned with proper legal representation for the local Chicano community, listed the complaints against Knoll.

He has directly or indirectly forced five Chicano attorneys to resign since Jan. 1, it states. In addition, it points out that Knoll has compelled one Chicano attorney to retain private counsel and file a complaint and lawsuit against Legal Aid based on employment discrimination.

The statement says that Knoll will not pay more than $613 per month to a Chicano law school graduate while at the same time paying more than $14,000 per year to an equally qualified staff member and $12,000 per year to his wife, another society staff member of equal status.

Other complaints against Knoll include his refusal to promote a Chicano attorney to a position he is qualified for or hire qualified Chicamos who volunteered their services.

Soto outlined the need for Spanish-speaking lawyers at the society, especially in the Oceanside office where he said 50 per cent of the cliental is Mexican-American.

Lawsuits, including the Eden Gardens complaint against the sheriff's department and another against the Vista School District, were named as especially needing continued Chicano legal aid.

"We're concerned about what will happen if these people leave," Soto said. "Our office does a lot of referral to the society for those with legal problems, and right now we're having to look for alternative services."
