

Letter from Graupe
a German 1734

To Mr. Hale great grandfather 1714. Hale

Franckford or the Duer the 26 Nov: new style 1734.

Sir

To Merchant and friend of mine named Schröter returning to Hambrough gives me occasion of paying my respects to you, as duty requires, with a letter For distance of place cannot abolish the sense of gratitude, I have, for the many favours received at your house, nor make me omit my wishes for a lasting Content and Happiness of you and your dear Family At present I have taken again to the Law and live at the University of Franckford.

C. Mr. William Hall, Officer at the Black River Party in Jamaica

To

My Negroe is sold to the King of Prussia who keeps at Potsdam (his usual Country seat four German Miles distant from the Capital City of Berlin) more then twenty Negroes among his Body Guards of tall Grenadiers, who do march near the Drums and play upon Pipes, when the Soldiers do draw up to exercise or do their Duty. Your quondam desire of having a Musician coming over to you; I have thought of; yet cannot find a Subject both fit and willing to accept of. Many are frightened with the Dicousness of the Journey, or are otherwise distrustfull. If you are still of the same Mind, Sir; then I will beg of you, to despatch a new Order on your Factors in England, to acquaint me with their being ready to bear the Charges of travelling thither. I should have writ my self to them, and it might have been perhaps usefull in other matters, but must accuse here my own Negligence for not having recorded their Names. My Intention is to trouble you, Sir, shortly with a full Account of my Station & Way of living. For this time I must beg the favour of leaving.

my respects to Mr. Gale my second Benefactor as likewise to Mr. Kelly and their families.
Whereunto I conclude assuring you of my Readiness to serve my self

Sir.

At your humble servant ~~John George Rousseau~~ writing in this Country Sir, you will do best to make your address on the outside of the letter in French perhaps thus:

Monseigneur Jean George Rousseau
Consul des Etats-Unis

Monsieur Jean George Rousseau
Consul des Etats-Unis
Maison de la France.
