

Barnett-Terry to Be Honored by Personnel Administrators

February 24, 2009

Jan Jennings

Renee Barnett-Terry, Ph.D., dean of Student Affairs, Revelle College at the University of California, San Diego, will receive the Fred Turner Award for Outstanding Service to the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators (NASPA) at its national conference March 8 in Seattle.

Barnett-Terry has served on the national board of NASPA in numerous leadership roles including as 2002 annual conference chair and Region V1 vice president. Last year NASPA recognized her as a Pillar of the Profession.

NASPA annually honors members who have achieved professional distinction.

Media Contact: Jan Jennings, 858-822-1684