

UCSD names new library development aide

December 8, 1995

Media Contact: Pat JaCoby, 534-7404

UCSD NAMES NEW LIBRARY DEVELOPMENT AIDE

Frances S. Hegeler has been appointed the new assistant director of development of University Libraries at the University of California, San Diego.

Her previous position at UCSD was external affairs officer in the School of Architecture, a post she held since 1991. Prior to joining UCSD she was associated with several architectural firms as marketing consultant or director of marketing.

Hegeler is a graduate of University of Massachusetts, Amhurst, with a Bachelor of Science degree in political science.

(December 8, 1995)